A 'SAFE AND SANE' PARTY
(See Recipes Below)

Why not plan a party for the Fourth of July, to keep the youngsters in the family happy and out of mischief? It might be a party on the porch or in the yard—or a picnic in the country, if you prefer it. Make it a family affair, or invite a youthful guest or two to keep your own children company.

Whatever type of party you plan, make it a festive affair—with gay table decorations (if refreshments are being served at home), very special "Party foods" and patriotic party favors, too. Gaily colored paper table cloths and napkins are a must, and they do save work! And be sure to provide balloons and snap crackers, or noisemakers of another kind.

Plan definite entertainment, with an active game or two to permit the children to use up excess energy, and a "pencil and paper" or guessing game to play when a little rest is in order. Pencil and paper games such as these two might be used—and you'll find that adults as well as young people enjoy them.

Jumbled Names.
Prepare for each player a typed or mimeographed copy of the following list of scrambled letters each of which, when unscrambled, spells the name of a famous American. To get an idea of what the game is like, why not try your own luck with the list before looking at the answers?

- Lyemkicn
- Nartg
- Connill
- Sajonek
- Gerphhis
- Gotnihaws
- Karnnif
- Smada
- Sejrefofn
- Swebret

How did you do? Here are the answers: McKinley, Grant, Lincoln, Jackson, Pershing, Washington, Franklin, Adams, Jefferson and Webster.

- Menu for July Fourth Party.
- Tomato Aspic Salad
 - Assorted Sandwiches
 - Potato Chips
 - Ice Cream Fire Crackers
 - Pinwheel Cookies
 - Beverage

Parfait glasses full of Peppermint Stick Ice cream, camouflaged in red paper cylinders to look like giant firecrackers, are amusing for a Fourth of July dessert. Top the ice cream with a cherry, with the stem left on to form the firecracker wick. And serve Pinwheel Cookies to complete the "fireworks dessert."

- Chocolate Pinwheels.
- ½ cup shortening
 - ½ cup granulated sugar
 - 1 egg
 - 2 cups cake flour
 - 1 teaspoon baking powder
 - ¼ teaspoon salt
 - 3 tablespoons milk
 - 1 teaspoon vanilla extract
 - 1 ounce chocolate (melted)
 - 1 teaspoon cinnamon

Cream shortening thoroughly and add sugar slowly. Add egg and beat well. Mix and sift all dry ingredients and add, together with the milk and the vanilla. Divide dough into 2 parts. To one part add the melted chocolate. To the other add the cinnamon. Roll each part one-eighth inch thick. Place the chocolate dough on the cinnamon dough and roll up like a jelly roll. Wrap in wax paper and chill for several hours. Cut in thin slices and bake on a lightly greased cookie sheet in a moderate oven (350 degrees) for 8 to 10 minutes.

- Potato Chips.
- 4 medium sized potatoes
 - 2 to 3 pounds fat
 - Salt

Pare and cut potatoes into very thin slices. Allow sliced potatoes to stand in ice water until firm (about 1 hour). Heat fat to 375 degrees. Blot potatoes dry with a clean towel and place potato slices in French fry basket. Immerse basket in hot fat by handle. Keep potatoes moving constantly so that the slices do not stick together. Remove basket and drain potatoes on brown paper. Sprinkle with salt.

- Tomato Aspic.
- 4 cups canned tomatoes
 - ¼ teaspoon salt
 - Dash of pepper
 - 1 bay leaf
 - ½ cup celery (chopped)
 - 1 tablespoon onion (chopped)
 - 4 whole cloves
 - 2 tablespoons gelatin
 - ½ cup water
 - ¼ teaspoon Worcestershire sauce

Combine the tomatoes, salt, pepper, bay leaf, celery, onion and cloves. Cook gently for 10 minutes and strain. Soak gelatin in cold water and add to the hot tomato mixture, together with Worcestershire sauce, stirring well. Pour into ring mold and chill until set. Unmold on large plate, garnish with lettuce or watercress and fill center with cabbage salad.

- Magic Peppermint Stick Ice Cream.
- 1½ cups (1 can) sweetened condensed milk
 - 2 cups thin cream or evaporated milk
 - 1 cup cold water
 - ¼ cup crushed peppermint stick candy

Blend sweetened condensed milk, thin cream, and water. Freeze in 2-quart freezer using a mixture of 3 parts ice to 1 part rock salt. Remove dasher. Add crushed peppermint stick candy. Pack in ice and salt for 1 hour or more after freezing. Makes 1½ quarts.

- Special Peanut Butter Sandwich Filling.
- (Makes 1 cup filling)
 - 1 ripe banana
 - 1 cup peanut butter
 - ¼ cup dates, cut fine
 - 1 teaspoon lemon juice

Mash banana with a fork and thoroughly blend in remaining ingredients.

Ice Cream Cone Clowns.
Place a ball of ice cream on a butter cookie, and with raisins or tiny gumdrops make eyes, nose and mouth in the ice cream. Place a cone jauntily on top of the ice cream. Add a ruff of whipped cream around the clown's neck.

Brown Bread Sandwiches.
1 loaf brown bread
1 3-ounce package cream cheese
2 tablespoons butter
Slice brown bread very thin. Mix cream cheese and butter together thoroughly. Spread brown bread slices generously with the cheese mixture.

Brims Are Wide, Wider, Widest In Chic and Flattering Ways

By CHERIE NICHOLAS

WHAT a merry chase fickle fashion is leading us this season in regard to the hats we wear. Starts us off at the dawn of spring with flower or fabric-drape toques so tiny (some of them) as to be almost amusing, yet withal so flattering and so chic, even the new broad brims cannot entirely wrest their well-earned honors from them. And then what does capricious fashion do—suddenly announces brims so tremendously wide they fairly amaze one. Which, summed up, means every fashionable wardrobe of hats this summer must necessarily include both types to be worn as time and occasion demand.

As to the new broad-of-brim vogue so full of promise for the coming months, no matter how big your hat with a brim, it will be none too large, according to fashion's way of thinking. None too dramatic either, since the new brims are daring indeed, and to make them appear the more so they are worn with a dash and a go that adds infinitely to their style.

The wide-brimmed, strictly tailored felts which proved themselves so definitely good-looking with the new spring suits continue to have a firm hold on the affections of well-dressed women. Outstanding among these striking felts are the simple, huge, sailor types, the stunning, large Bretons and the very new rippled or pleated, soft, flaring, felt brim that, to be perfectly chic, must be worn far back on the head. Of course the latter are necessarily dedicated to youth, for who but the ingenue smooth of brow dare venture so striking a fashion?

The fact that the off-the-face broad brims are essentially a young sophisticated item should not by any means imply that the vogue for enormous brims is confined to the teen-age and debutante set. On the contrary, the off-face wide brim is merely one phase of the matter, for whether you are in the "life begins at forty" class or not, the message of the wide brim is all-inclusive, for certain it is and true, there's flattery a-plenty in the new wide brims, whether you are sweet sixteen or "plus."

The new wide-brimmed summer straws are everything you want them to be. The stunning hat worn by the smart young woman, standing above to the right in the illustration, speaks in accents of red, as also does her belt, which is a brilliant red patent leather, for be it known that fashion is making a sensational splurge of red this summer, red hats being a pet hobby just now.

Broad of brim and utterly fascinating is the hat which the young sophisticate standing below to the left in the picture is carrying. It is made of raffia in colors matching those of her gay plaid frock and still gayer raffia sandals.

The vogue for white millinery came early and is going to stay late. Women of fashion have been wearing white hats in accordance with style dictate since early spring and as the summer advances the popularity of white headgear is rushing along at a crescendo scale. The white straw breton pictured above to the left flaunts a cluster of strawberries nestled in its crown—another instance of the flair for red with white.

Black holds its own in spite of the tremendous play being made on color this season. See the off-face Breton below to the right in the group. A crisp white bow and head-band enlivens the black to perfection—just the type hat to wear with prints and summer town clothes.

Good Shoe News

Hear, hear ye the good news! It's about an exciting innovation—an in-nersole of a new synthetic material named Onco Insole-ated, which has recently been developed by Vincent De Liso. In creating this new innersole a slim layer between the outer sole of a shoe and the lining completely insulates the foot against the heat and cold of city pavements. Mr. DeLiso says this insole-ated sole is so deep and resilient it practically caresses the foot, causing the shoe to be molded at the first wearing, to the individual contours of the foot.

Summer Black
In the midst of all the welter of color shown for summer wear, sheer black, and black and white, zoom to an important place for hot weather.

'Companionate' Is Aim in Accessories

More and more fashion encourages the idea of companionate accessories. This season, more than ever, much ado is being made over establishing a family relation between this and that of one's costume. Such as for instance a costume ring to match the lapel gadget or clip. Also the idea of wearing flower costume jewelry to which is matched the color of your nail polish.

You can get blouses with hats of the same material and designers have even gone so far as to make gloves of the identical fabric. Costumes that ensemble from head to foot include dress, hat, parasol and gloves of the same material. This is being carried out beautifully in the very fashionable cottons, especially flowered prints.

Dark Linen With Lingerie Frills

New on the style program and strikingly chic is the black or navy linen redingote dress the skirt of which flares open at the front revealing starch white petticoat frills, the very feminine treatment further carried out in dramatic collar and cuffs of matching snow-white embroidery and lace.

Fashion-alert women are also setting the pace with costumes of dark green linen with which red accessories complete a costume of outstanding mode. With dresses of linen in the new browns hats and details in the much talked about cocoa shades achieve pleasing contrast.
