PILUSO BESTS FIELD IN MAT MIXUP JULY 4

ERNEIE PILUSO showed reason why he is called Oregon's "iron man" last night when he came out on top of one of the most vicious battle royals Promoter Mack Lillard has ever presented in southern Oregon. The card was held in the Elizabethan theater as a feature of the July 4 celebration.

Bulldog Jackson made a big mistake when he teamed up with Danny McShain in the battle royal. The melee had just started when McShain turned on Jackson and pinned him. Since the first man to be thrown was cut out of the purse, Jackson received nothing for the beating he took.

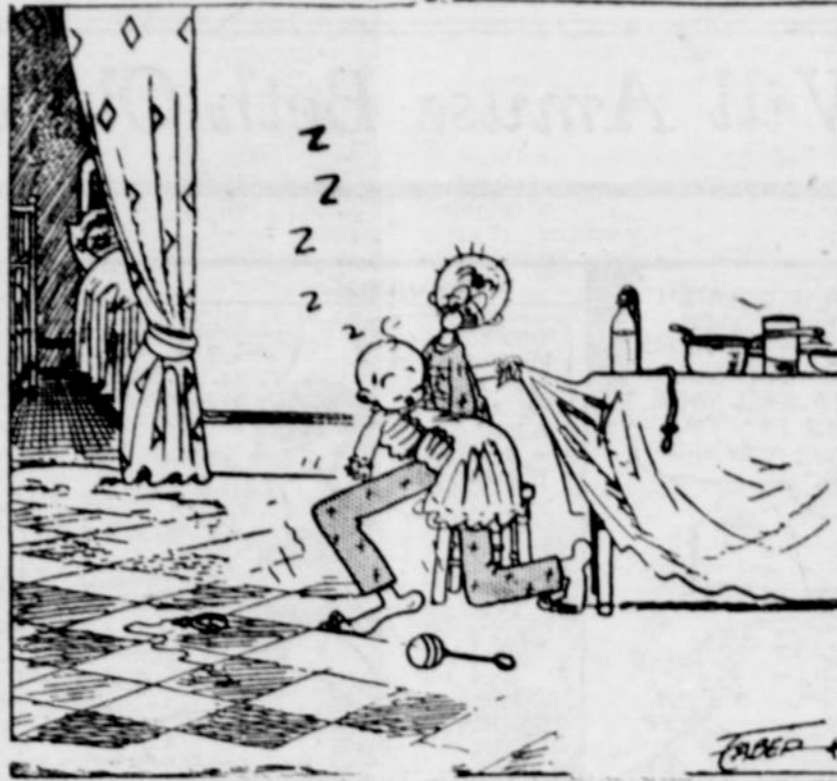

Pete Belcastro was next out when several opponents ganged up on him. He was followed by Prince Mehalikis who was on the receiving end of some stiff punches by McShain. The remaining men then turned their efforts on Sgt. Bob Kennaston and threw him. Next on the list was Cowboy Dude Chick, which left McShain and Piluso for the final main event.

According to the matching resulting from the battle royal, Mehalikis and Belcastro met in the first match. The lone fall went to Belcastro with a body press after he gave Mehalikis an unusually rough working over.

The next match was between Kennaston and Chick. The Gold Hill terror slammed Chick all over the ring before taking the first fall with his Gold Hill swivel. When the second fall started Chick seemed to still be groggy and Kennaston went to work on him. In short order the cowboy hoisted Kennaston up on his shoulders and 17 revolutions of the airplane spin finished that bout.

The Piluso-McShain go was the wildest affair of the evening. Ernie took the first fall with five Sonnenbergs but during the second spill McShain disabled Referee Frankie Clemens with a right-hand swat to the face. Auxiliary Referee Jimmie Goodrich jumped into the ring to aid Clemens and while this was going on McShain caught Piluso in a pile driver for a fall. When the bell rang to start the third tumble Piluso was still unable to stand up but Goodrich gave him the match, disqualifying McShain for hitting the referee. A capacity crowd of about 1000 fans witnessed the battle.

SOFTBALL TILTS TO RESUME 8TH

HOW THEY STAND

Team	W.	L.	Pct.
Pine Box	4	0	1.000
Hilt	3	0	1.000
Dodgers	2	2	.500
Elks	2	3	.400
Miner Press	2	3	.400
Varsity	2	3	.400
Talent	0	4	.000

Because of the cavalcade sets being constructed on the playing field at the high school ball park, no softball games have been scheduled since Monday, July 1, but the league rivalry will be resumed Monday, July 8, when the Dodgers and Pine Box clash in the first game and Talent and Hilt squaring off in the second.

Wednesday, July 10, the four teams will trade opponents with the Dodgers mixing with Talent and Hilt and the Pine Boxers tangling in the second game. This meeting will have an interesting bearing on the league race, since both teams to date are undefeated in the second one-third round.

Friday, July 12, the Negro Ghosts from Sioux City, Iowa, will return to Ashland to meet an all-star team.

Boxers and Dodgers Win Brace of Games

The Pine Box kept their lead in the second one-third intact at the high school softball park Friday night when they turned back the Elks 6 to 2 in a fine exhibition of the game. Pitcher Charlie Warren of the Boxers gave up only three hits, two in the first and one in the third, while his teammates got to Kenny Harris of the BPOE for five well-scattered blows. The fans saw a minimum of errors—for a change—with the Boxers making only one bobble and the Lodgemen slipping twice.

Varsity Holds Hilt To 2-1 Victory In Season's Best Game

Softball enthusiasts who went out to the ball field Monday night witnessed two of the best clashes in the league to date as the Elks turned back Talent 13 to 8 in the opener and Hilt emerged victorious over the Varsity 2 to 1 in the nightcap.

The Elks-Talent fracas was a good contest up until the seventh frame when, with the Merchants ahead 8 to 7, the Lodgemen turned on the steam and collected four hits and one walk, along with four Talent errors to gather six runs and put the tilt on ice. Talent's best efforts in their half of the last inning resulted in three up and three down.

Score by innings: R H E
Elks011 203 6—13 11 5
Talent002 006 0— 8 3 10
Batteries: Elks—K. Harris to Baughman; Talent—Ausland to Childers and Vetter.

Second Game Is Classic

Dick Mole, Varsity pitcher, turned in the best performance of his 1940 season when he allowed Hilt but four hits. Five men were fanned by Mole and the windmill issued only two walks. Bill Tallis, Hilt moundsman, gave but two blows all evening and both pitchers were backed by excellent ball playing. Ernie Francis, Hilt centerfielder, "robbed" Mike Morris of a home run when, in the fifth inning, Francis ran to the centerfield wall to pull one down.

Score by innings: R H E
Varsity000 100 0— 1 2 5
Hilt000 101 x— 2 4 4
Batteries: Hilt—Tallis to Zanotto; Varsity—Mole to Strickland.

to Getting; Elks—K. Harris to Baughman.

Dodgers Slaughter Varsity

Fans who stayed to witness the second game were not as fortunate and saw a ragged game with the Dodgers slaughtering the Varsity 16 to 3. About all that kept the folks in the stands were the continued arguments between Dom Provost, Varsity sponsor, and Parker Hess, Dodger manager. Hess played a new man, under contract to his team, and Provost is said to have protested until an investigation is conducted to determine where the new man's legal residence is.

Score by innings: R H E

LIONS CLUB WINS TOP PARADE HONORS

In the unattached section a group of girls dressed in old-fashioned costumes and representing the Cavalcade of the Siskiyou won first place money of $2.50. Henry Johnson took second prize of $1.50 and the state forestry service's horse and buggy copped the third prize of $1.50.

In the juvenile division, which always is one of the most popular features of any July 4 parade, little Glenn Ingie received top honors and a cash award of $2.50. The first prize money of $20 in the organizations division went to the Business and Professional Women's club of Medford; second, $10, to the Ashland Elks; third of $6 to the Ashland Garden club; fourth of $4 to Ashland Music Study club; fifth, sixth and seventh prizes of $2.50 each went to the American Legion and auxiliary, the Townsend club and the Eagles.

The Ashland American Legion Kiltie band won first prize of $25 in the band and drum corps division and was followed by the Yreka Drum and Bugle corps, which took second money of $15, and the Ashland city band third prize of $10.

Competition was keen in the horse division of the parade and judges were hesitant at designating winner but, after much consultation among themselves decided as follows:

Mature horses—First prize of $10 to Carl Murphy, second prize of $5 to No. 23, and third of $3 to No. 3. In the young horse division the first prize of $10 went to No. 18, second of $5 to No. 1 and third prize, $3, to No. 24.

The $4 first prize money in the children's pony division was awarded to No. 9; second prize of $2.50 to No. 7, and third prize of $1 to entry No. 1.

Little Sherry Stansbury received the $15 first prize in the parade horse division and the $10 second prize was awarded to No. 6 and $5 third to entry No. 7.

HOW'S YOUR BREATH TODAY?

You may be guilty of halitosis (bad breath) this very minute, and yet be unaware of it. That's the insidious thing about this offensive condition, so frequently due to food fermentation in the mouth.

You yourself may not recognize it . . . but everyone you come in contact with does.

Listerine Antiseptic halts such fermentation, said by some authorities to be a major cause of mouth odors, and overcomes the odors themselves. So why risk annoying and offending others? Why hurt yourself socially and in business?

It is so easy to guard against offending by gargling with Listerine, the safe antiseptic. Your breath becomes sweeter and more agreeable. If you value your job and your friends, use Listerine Antiseptic regularly. Lambert Pharmaceutical Company, St. Louis, Mo.
