MUDDLE

A doctor at a deaf and dumb institution invited a friend to its annual dance. He explained that when the guest wished to dance with one of the inmates he should smile and make a circle with his hand.

The guest picked out a pretty girl, and went through the necessary formula. She responded, and they had several dances.

Then the doctor arrived, and, to the guest's surprise, asked his partner whether she would give him a dance. She said, "Yes, when I can get rid of this deaf and dumb fellow!"

Object Lesson

Zip! Wow! Young Jimmie's pup tore through the dining room howling with pain.

"Why, Jimmie, what can be the matter with Leo?" his mother asked.

Jimmie explained: "He bit my finger and so I bit his ear. If he can't learn by being talked to, I've got to teach him some other way."

An Old Washstand Becomes a Sideboard

By RUTH WYETH SPEARS

SO MANY of you have written me letters of appreciation about the new SEWING BOOK 5 that I want to thank you all here at one time. In Book 1 is sketched and described methods of making slip covers, curtains, bedspreads, dressing tables and other things for the house. Next came Book 2 with gifts, novelties and a glossary of embroidery stitches. Then, in Book 3, I began to share with you some of the human interest side of this fascinating job of mine, and to tell you about the adventures of many clever women who make the things that they want for their homes—sometimes from almost nothing. There were more of these adventures in Book 4, and there are still more in Book 5.

There is nothing that pleases me so much as when you tell me that my sketches are so clear that you can see at a glance how to make things. I am glad that everything needed is in today's sketch about this remodeled washstand because I have used up all my space now; and the frill around the top shelf is five inches deep. Books are 10 cents each. Send order to:

It Looks as If Brother Tom Was Rubbing It In!

Three weeks after she started boarding school life, Jessie began to sign her letters home: "Jessica."

Father and Mother smiled about it, but it seemed to be a bit too much for her brother Tom. So he wrote to her as follows:

"Dear Jessica: "Daddica and Mummica have gone to visit Aunt Lizzica. They have taken Willica and Junica with them. Uncle Sammica is buying a new car, but can't decide between a Morrisica and a Jewelica. The cowica has had a calfica; I was going to call it Nellica, but changed it to Jimica, because it is a bullica. Your loving brotherica, Tommica."

We Can All Be EXPERT BUYERS

● In bringing us buying information, as to prices that are being asked for what we intend to buy, and as to the quality we can expect, the advertising columns of this newspaper perform a worth while service which saves us many dollars a year.

● It is a good habit to form, the habit of consulting the advertisements every time we make a purchase, though we have already decided just what we want and where we are going to buy it. It gives us the most priceless feeling in the world: the feeling of being adequately prepared.

● When we go into a store, prepared beforehand with knowledge of what is offered and at what price, we go as an expert buyer, filled with self-confidence. It is a pleasant feeling to have, the feeling of adequacy. Most of the unhappiness in the world can be traced to a lack of this feeling. This advertising shows another of its manifold facets—shows itself as an aid toward making all our business relationships more secure and pleasant.
