MRS. BRUCE ENTERTAINS

Forty one women of the Methodist church gathered at the parsonage on Laurel street Tuesday afternoon at the invitation of the pastor's wife, Mrs. G. W. Bruce. The party was given in honor of Mrs. Sydney Hall, who with her husband served the Methodist church for five years previous to appointment of Dr. Hall as superintendent of the Cascade district. Mrs. Hall is spending the week with friends in Ashland.

The parsonage was tastefully decorated with huge baskets of bright flowers and bits of greenery. Moving about the rooms as assistants to Mrs. Bruce were Mrs. Walter Herndon and Mrs. Ralph Billings. Assisting with the serving of refreshments were Ida Willard, Laura Billings and Wilma Froman. Mrs. E. O. Smith favored with a number of appropriate solos.

The afternoon was spent in renewing acquaintances with their former lady of the parsonage.

Methodist Episcopal Church

Dr. George W. Bruce, Minister

Sunday school 9:45 a. m. Homer Billings, general superintendent. There is no book which influences the lives of men so much as the Bible. It is true "Thy Word is a lamp unto my feet, and a light unto my path." (Psa. 119:105).

Morning sermon 11 o'clock. Sermon subject, "Representatives of Heaven's Court." The only God and heaven some folks will ever see is the God and heaven which they see in your life. There will be special music at this service.

Epworth and Wesley Leagues meet for worship at 6:45 p. m. Here is a good place for youth to seek God's way of life.

The union service is to be held at 8 o'clock p. m. in the Presbyterian church, where Rev. Lottie will give the gospel sermon. Prayer meeting is held Wednesday evenings at 7:30 o'clock. Beginning in the near future there will be a thorough study of the book of Revelation.
