AHS FOOTBALL TO OPEN WITH G-P'S SEPT. 27

THE Ashland high Grizzlies, under Coach Leighton Blake, open the southern Oregon high school football conference on Sept. 27 when they tangle with the Grants Pass Cavemen on the latter's gridiron.

The traditional Medford game, booked for the Ashland granite on Armistice day, Nov. 11, may be moved to the Tigers' turf because of a big celebration coming off in Medford on that date.

Each team in the conference—that is, Grants Pass, Medford, Ashland and Klamath Falls, plays the other teams once as far as the standings are concerned.

The complete schedule, unless some of the scenes are changed, follows:

- Sept. 27—Ashland at Grants Pass. Oct. 4—Grants Pass at Medford. Oct. 11—Klamath Falls at Ashland. Oct. 18—Klamath Falls at Medford. Oct. 25—Grants Pass at Klamath Falls. Nov. 11—Medford at Ashland.

NAZARIAN AND PILUSO REOPEN MAT THRILLER

AFTER a week's layoff due to the Labor day holiday, wrestling will resume at Medford armory next Monday night, Sept. 9, when Promoter Mack Lillard presents another of his all-star cards with four old favorites and a couple of new men.

In the top main event Ernie Piluso and Mike Nazarian, the Armenian scamp, will continue their feud. Nazarian took the other match to give Piluso his only current set-back in Medford but the Klamath Falls sonnenburg artist feels that he is due to whip the big bully.

Whitey Wahlberg will be making his first appearance in Medford when he meets up with headlock expert Jack Hagen in the middle bout. Wahlberg is an 188-pound Swede and is said to be fast and scientific.

Nehoff wrestled in Medford about two years ago under the name of Tiger Taskoff and is said to be even meaner than before. He is a Bulgarian.

The first two matches will be over the Australian system of six 10-minute rounds with two out of three falls deciding the winner while the main go is for one hour straight wrestling or the best two out of three. The opener gets under way at 8:30 p. m.

Mrs. Harvey Walker of San Rafael, Calif., is visiting here for several days with friends.

Mrs. Kent Ashcraft visited with friends and relatives in Portland last week-end.

Last Lap

HOW'S YOUR BREATH TODAY?

You may be guilty of halitosis (bad breath) this very minute, and yet be unaware of it. That's the insidious thing about this offensive condition, so frequently due to food fermentation in the mouth.

You yourself may not recognize it... but everyone you come in contact with does.

Listerine Antiseptic halts such fermentation, said by some authorities to be a major cause of mouth odors, and overcomes the odors themselves. So why risk annoying and offending others? Why hurt yourself socially and in business?

It is so easy to guard against offending by gargling with Listerine, the safe antiseptic. Your breath becomes sweeter and more agreeable. If you value your job and your friends, use Listerine Antiseptic regularly. Lambert Pharmaceutical Company, St. Louis, Mo.

Marshfield Youth Wins Golf Honors

Dick Hanen, 19-year-old golfing sensation from Marshfield, defeated Eddie Simmons of Medford 6 and 5 to win the annual Southern Oregon-Northern California tournament on the Rogue River course at Medford over the past week-end.

It is said that Simmons, usually a master at putting, played probably his worst game in years as most of his simple shots went "haywire."

Dommie Provost, 12-year-old son of Dom Provost, was the surprise of the tournament until he was beaten by Gerry Gastineau. Provost defeated men old enough to be his father and was spoken of as a coming "Bobby Jones."

Ashlanders reaching the finals and their scores in the fifth flight were Dr. Harvey A. Woods, Ashland, over Dick Milestone, Jr., Medford, one up on the 19th. Sixth flight, Gerry Gastineau, Ashland, defeated Earl Leever, Ashland, 2 and 1. Interstate special: Louis Richardson, Burlingame, Calif., won over Ed Dewes, Ashland, 3 and 2.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Davies of Eugene visited here last week-end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Davies.
