HE'S DYING TO HELP

Uncle—Well, Anthony, I may as well tell you I have taken out a $50,000 life insurance policy in your favor. Could I do anything more for you?

Nephew—Nothing more on earth, Uncle.

Yes—What Difference?

"Here, waiter, what kind of soup is this—chicken or tomato?"

"Can't you tell by the taste, sir?"

"No."

"Well, what difference does it make then?"

Improvement

Visitor—Do you think times are getting better?

Pastor—Oh, yes; decidedly. We are getting much better class of buttons in the collection plate now.

Wildcat Mine

Layton—Poor Dick; he lost all his money in a wildcat mining venture.

Phoebe—Mercy! I didn't know you had to mine for wildcats.

Keeping Your Linen Shelves in Order

By RUTH WYETH SPEARS

MODERN linen closets are tucked in spare corners all over the house, always as close as possible to the place that the linens will be needed. Towels, napkins in the pantry or kitchen and bed linens near the bed rooms.

I have sketched the whole story here of how one homemaker keeps her linen shelves in order. She likes to keep things in sets identified with colored bands and thinks it is more efficient to roll many pieces than to fold them. The best napkins may be banded in blue and white, luncheon mats may be rolled on a red stick with a red band and green may be used for the bridge table cloth. Linen holders like these would make attractive gifts, too. And speaking of shelves and drawers; girls adore the stocking case in Book 3, and the drawer pads in Book 4; and they make dainty gifts for any one. The table cloth case in Book 2 is another good linen closet idea.

NOTE: These homemaking booklets are a service to our readers and No. 5 just published contains a description of the other numbers, as well as 32 pages of clever ideas fully illustrated. To get your copy send 10c coin to cover cost and mailing. Send order to:

Facts of ADVERTISING

• ADVERTISING represents the leadership of a nation. It points the way. We merely follow—follow to new heights of comfort, of convenience, of happiness.

As time goes on advertising is used more and more, and as it is used more we all profit more. It's the way advertising has—of bringing a profit to everybody concerned, the consumer included
