

Patterson Plans To 'Blitz' Six-Man Loop

Coach Leonard (Pat) Patterson of Jacksonville high school once again is gunning for the Jackson county six-man football title with the return of three regulars from last year's championship team and 17 other players.

Six other lettermen of the 1939 squad have answered Patterson's call and the mentor is looking hopefully forward to another successful season.

The Redskins have arranged the following seven-game schedule: Sept. 27, Phoenix Oct. 4, Talent; Oct. 11, Gold Hill; Oct. 25, Myrtle Creek; Nov. 1, Prospect; Nov. 11, Oakland; and Nov. 25, Eagle Point.

- Mr. and Mrs. Frank Homes of Yakima, Wash. arrived in Ashland Tuesday for a visit at the home of Mrs. C. I. Homes and other relatives and friends.

HILTS NEWS

Frank Lewis of Los Angeles, gravel truck driver for Parrish Brothers' Construction company, was seriously injured Friday afternoon when his loaded truck was struck by the northbound Southern Pacific train and carried about 820 yards along the track. Lewis suffered broken vertebrae in his neck. He was given emergency first aid by Dr. Schlappi at the Hilt hospital and then rushed by ambulance to the Yreka General hospital. He is doing well now. The truck was completely wrecked. Mrs. Lewis came from Los Angeles to be with him when notified of the accident.

Mrs. H. De Jarnett, president, conducted the meeting and Mrs. Arthur Pedersen led the devotions. Those who attended were Mesdames Frank Ward, Walter Bray and daughter Judy, O. Bernheisel, Frank Bernheisel, Frank Graves, W. Holmberg, John De Witt, W. Gran, T. Quamme, H. Clevenger, Richard Williams, Nelson Watts and son Gene, Arthur Pedersen and children Sony and Ruth, and Harry De Jarnett. Following the business meeting delicious refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. O. Bernheisel and Mrs. Frank Bernheisel. The next meeting, Oct. 3, will be held at the home of Mrs. Frank Ward.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Williams visited Tony Mendes in the Yreka General hospital Sunday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Cobb returned from a two weeks vacation trip in southern California. Mrs. Jack Lindener and her baby daughter of Yreka went home from the Hilt hospital Wednesday. Mrs. Eldon Bradfield and baby came home from the Yreka hospital Wednesday evening. Mr. and Mrs. W. Gran visited Tony Mendes in Yreka Wednesday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Richard Williams spent Wednesday in Medford. Warren Bayliss returned to Seattle to resume his studies at the university.

(Held over from last week) The Ladies club met Thursday afternoon at the club house with Mrs. Harry De Jarnett hostess for the afternoon. Others present were Mesdames Frank Ward, Vernal Nebeker, Fred Haynes, Lloyd Luper, Ben Ollom, Ray Elliott, Frank Ohlund, Arthur Nelson, Ed Adams, John Kallvet and Arthur Pedersen. Bridge was enjoyed by those attending with Mrs. Elliott receiving high prize and Mrs. Kallvet, low. Delicious refreshments were served. Miss Florence Mendes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Antone Mendes, became the bride of Johnny Verandes of Hayward in Reno, Nev., last Tuesday. They will make their home in Hayward. Mrs. A. Pedersen gave a birthday party for her daughter Ruth Sept. 6. Those present were Donna and Ruth Rosecrans, Doris Wall, Sherry Bradfield, Maurine and Sally Ryce, Kay Williams, Donald Lee, Jere Brooks, Rosalie Parker and Sonny Pedersen. There were favors for all and a lovely birthday cake and ice cream were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Jean Hebvard of Ann Arbor, Mich., who spent several days as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wade Roop, left Thursday afternoon enroute home via southern California and New Mexico. Mrs. Hebvard is a cousin of Mr. Roop. She just recently returned from a visit to her homeland in Sweden and to the former home of Mr. Hebvard in Paris, France. Mr. Hebvard is a professor of architecture at Ann Arbor. Mrs. Ethel Florey of Medford was also a guest at the Roop home.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Williams and son Roy spent Saturday in Medford on business and visiting Mrs. Roy Rushton. Raymond Coleman returned home Friday after spending three months playing baseball in the east, and is spending a week deer hunting before enrolling for his studies at Yreka high school. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Gilberg and daughter were Medford visitors Saturday. Miss Phyllis Sullivan of Dorris is staying with Mrs. Elmer Jackson and attending high school in Yreka.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Lindener of Yreka are the proud parents of a little daughter, Diana Kay, born Monday morning at the Hilt hospital. Mrs. Stella King was in Medford Saturday. Miss Jessie Davis of Portland

LEG SPECIALIST!

Miner 'Seer' Gives Nod to 10 Cinches For Week-End Tiffs

By HARRY CHIPMAN The old average took an early season jump last week-end when 10 football games were picked in this column with nine of them being correct. After one week of grid contests the average reads .900. Again this Friday the neck goes out for 10 more selections with each one of them being tough to pick, excepting the Gonzaga-St. Mary's fracas at San Francisco Sunday. Those Bulldogs are just too good for anything on their schedule this season.

Tonight, Leighton Blake takes his Ashland high Grizzlies to Grants Pass where they will open the league schedule against the Cavemen. Due to Grizzly grid exhibitions over a past two-year period the Cavemen look pretty good but Blake says for the writer to pick his squad, or else, and he's a pretty big guy so it's Ashland for a win.

Medford didn't have anything but 11 men in uniform and Bill Bowerman against Weed last Friday night but the combination was good enough for a win so we take the Tornado over Corvallis at Medford tonight.

Klamath Falls will retain their spent a couple of days with Mr. and Mrs. Norton, enroute home from San Francisco where she had been called by the death of her only sister, Miss Davis is Mr. Norton's niece.

Mr. and Mrs. William Gran and son Bill spent Saturday afternoon and evening in Medford. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Kennedy spent the week-end in Grants Pass. Tony Mendes was taken to the Yreka General hospital last week for treatment and underwent an operation Tuesday morning.

Mrs. Tom Toulouse and children, Tom and Caroline, of Montague were visiting Mrs. Oren Edwards Monday. Wayne Baumgartner and Fred Haynes went to Dunsmuir Saturday to play for a dance. Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Baumgartner were in Yreka Saturday evening. Billy Bernheisel left for Grants Pass Sunday to enlist for army training. Ivan Black returned from his Alaska trip Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Black and children were shopping in Medford Saturday.

A Lot of Noise

There are a lot of ways to do anything. One is to make a lot of noise and waste a lot of energy. Our way is to make less noise but get more done. We don't make mistakes, either. Every detail is checked carefully.

KRUSE WILL TRY HALTING WINS OF MIKE NAZARIAN

BOB KRUSE, Oswego broccoli grower and one of the Pacific coast's veteran wrestlers, will attempt to put a halt to Mike Nazarian's winning when the pair clash in the top main event at Medford armory next Monday night, Sept. 30. Both men are past masters at the wrist lock and each delights in creating rough goings-on in the ring. It took a lot of coaxing on the part of Promoter Mack Lillard to get Nazarian to consent to the bout for the Armenian knows that Kruse has the best chance of nipping his winning streak where it hurts worst.

George (Wildcat) Wilson, former all-American football ace from the University of Washington, comes back to Medford to face Whitey Wahlberg in the middle go. Wahlberg has yet to lose a match in Medford after a three-weeks campaign, although he got a draw last Monday. Wilson will have a weight and size advantage but few wrestlers have the speed and bag of tricks owned by the little Swede.

Balk Estes, who made a big hit last Monday with his clever leg artistry, meets Taro Ito, the barrel-like Jap, in the opener. Both are scientific masters of the game and a thrilling go is expected. The bout goes to the mat at 8:30 p. m.

Dale Williams and Everett Nance left Monday for Los Angeles where they plan to enter the Douglas Airplane school.

undefeated status tonight when they entertain Eugene on the Pelican gridiron.

Here's a real tough one: Can Tex Oliver and his gang of Web-feet stop the San Diego Marines tonight at Eugene? Every system of football prognostication has failed to come up for an answer so there is nothing left to do but use our own judgment. Oregon has a good team but if the Miner's linotype operator has any small type, will please put the following in the tiniest letters: San Diego Marines.

Oregon State has a push-over with Idaho at Corvallis Saturday. Michigan comes a long way to meet California's Bears at Berkeley Saturday but it will be worth it. Michigan.

As mentioned before, Gonzaga over St. Mary's at San Francisco Sunday. Babe Hollingberry is praying for wet weather at Los Angeles tomorrow but the weather-man says he'll be disappointed so Southern California will come through.

Stanford will have a field day against the San Francisco Dons Saturday. The tilt is in San Francisco. Those Rose Bowl-bound Washington Huskies will show Minnesota how football should be played when they tangle at Minneapolis Saturday.
