

BELLVIEW NEWS

● The Bellview Grange held its annual booster night at the hall Tuesday evening. After the business meeting the lecturer, Mrs. G. E. Gowland, presented the following program: Numbers by the harmonica band; report of Grange activities by Mrs. H. B. Carter, followed by the chairman of each of the committees giving a report on their work. A complete report was given by the fair committee. The Walker quartet gave three numbers; Ray Barker and Lydia Katherine Davis gave a skit, "A bride preparing her first meal for the new husband". The children enjoyed a few games, after which refreshments were served and the remainder of the evening was spent in dancing.

● Leo Simmons and niece, Wanda Glenn, from Eureka, Calif., and Sam Harper of Keno spent Sunday at the R. E. Bell home. Mr. Simmons and Mr. Harper are cousins of Mr. Bell.

● Miss Evelyn Willis has been quite ill, suffering from tonsillitis.

● Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Kincaid gave a party Sunday evening in honor of Miss Eunice Kincaid's birthday anniversary. The guest list included Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Gowland, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Stenrud and Mrs. Stenrud's mother, Mrs. Andrew Sorenson, who is making her home with them, Mr. and Mrs. Pankey, Mr. and Mrs. Wade Wallis, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Davis and Lydia Katherine Davis, Marie Walker, Earl Warren and the Kincaid family. Eunice received a number of lovely gifts. The evening was spent in games and visiting and at the close delicious refreshments were served.

● Mrs. Mark True and Mrs. W. D. Jackson were at the Medford courthouse Tuesday attending a flower arrangement showing in charge of Miss Louise Lutz of Corvallis, home management specialist. Mrs. Archie Kincaid and Mrs. E. F. Kable were representatives of the extension unit, presenting their original arrangement, which was discussed, with arrangements presented by other units of the county.

● Mr. and Mrs. Mark True were visiting in Central Point Saturday at the home of Mrs. True's father, H. L. Gregory.

● Mrs. W. L. Moore of Medford spent Sunday visiting with Mr. Moore here.

● Herman Helm and his daughters, Joan and Barbara, returned Tuesday from Portland where they were called by the illness and death of G. W. Helm, his father.

● Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Randal and son, Douglas Lee, of Medford spent Sunday evening at the home of Mrs. Randal's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Metcalf.

● Marie Walker, with Mrs. Kay, returned Friday from a vacation trip to Portland and the coast.

● Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Rosen spent last week-end visiting his parents, the J. W. Rosens.

● Earnest Applegate returned Friday from northern Oregon where he visited a short time with friends and relatives.

● Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Samford left last week for Dunsuir to visit with their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Ford.

● Richard Joy and Chester Corey returned Saturday from Mt. Ashland where they were hunting. They were successful in bringing a large buck deer.

● Mrs. Claude Conley and small son James Franklin were removed from the hospital to their home Tuesday. They are doing nicely.

● The extension unit meets Friday with a covered dish dinner at noon, with Mrs. Henry and Mrs. Heilmeyer, Miss Jacqueline Brier

TALENT NEWS

● Word has been received here that Mrs. J. F. Neely a former resident of Talent is seriously ill at the home of her daughter in Los Angeles.

● Mr. and Mrs. Frank Newland who have lived in Medford the past summer have moved back to their home in Talent.

● A Southern Pacific bridge crew of 14 men will be located here for the next couple of weeks, making some needed repairs on the trestle south of town.

● Several local boys have left during the past week for the potato harvest at Tulelake, Calif.

● Mrs. Wayburn and children of Ashland spent Tuesday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Al Shepard.

● Mrs. Joe Tryon entertained at dinner last Wednesday for Mr. and Mrs. Lem Frink and daughter, Meda Jean.

● George Pfeifer and Wayne Cowdrey were hunting on the Greensprings Sunday.

● Herb Moore of Bellview was a business caller here Saturday.

● Mrs. Glen Brown of Anderson Creek visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Clark, Tuesday.

● Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Green purchased the Hearing place and moved there last week.

● The Campfire Girls met Thursday evening at the home of the president, LaVelle Mason. Mrs. Harry Hamilton and Marie Boardman were in charge of the meeting.

● Mr. and Mrs. Ole Carver went to Grants Pass Sunday to visit their son Dean, who left Sunday evening with the Grants Pass National Guards for Camp Murray, Wash.

● Mr. and Mrs. Tripp moved from the Sherard house in to the old Richfield property on the old highway.

● Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Tame will be present to talk on "Oregon products-made desserts."

● The club meets Wednesday of next week. Mesdames Albert Arnold, I. E. Deadmond and Vincent Lanini are to be hostesses, with Mrs. R. E. Bell and Mrs. Archie Kincaid in charge of the program.

● Mrs. Paul McKinnie and son Vernon returned from Vancouver, Wash., where they visited relatives.

● Mr. and Mrs. Con Austin left Sunday for Seaside to visit Mrs. Austin's daughter.

● Miss Aileen Inlow of Gold Hill was at her home here last week-end.

● Mrs. J. W. German of Reno, Nev., is visiting this week with the A. R. Kincaid family and with Mrs. Clara Taylor in Ashland. Mrs. German is a niece of Mrs. Taylor.

● At a special board meeting Tuesday evening Mrs. Delno Sloan of Phoenix was elected to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Mr. Overos as principal of the Bellview school. Mrs. Gally had been substituting for several days. All members of the board were present, Mrs. W. L. Moore, L. W. D. Meservey, William Briggs, Mrs. Charles Anderson is clerk of the board.

● Mrs. Archie Kincaid entertained at dinner Thursday Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hamaker and Mrs. Clara Taylor of Ashland, and Mrs. J. W. German, here visiting from Reno, Nev.

● Mrs. Clara Taylor of Ashland, John Hammond of Idaho, Mrs. German of Reno, and Mrs. Archie Kincaid spent Wednesday evening at the Clarence Taylor home.

● Mrs. Henninger and Mr. and Mrs. Theo Wenaus were in Medford Tuesday. Mrs. Wenaus secured her citizenship papers.

tertained at their ranch on Dead Indian Sunday for Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Dudley of Yreka.

● Mr. and Mrs. Claude Williams moved from the Henry Burnett place into the home vacated by Mr. and Mrs. Lem Frink, Monday.

● Julia May Weber, who spent the summer with her parents here, returned Friday to Portland and will attend school there.

● Marvin Gardner, who has been stopping in the Talent campground the last month, left Sunday for his home in Council Bluffs, Ia.

● Mr. and Mrs. Lem Frink and daughter left Sunday morning for Seattle where Mr. Frink will be employed in the shipyards.

● Mr. and Mrs. Guy Stager spent a couple of days last week visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Nate Russell on the Applegate.

● Earlene Withrow entered the beauty school at Medford Monday.

● Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Parks visited last Wednesday and Thursday with Mr. and Mrs. Roland Parks in Sprague River.

● Mrs. Mary Leslie of Bonanza is visiting her brother, Reverend Friedenber, this week.

● Ray Garland attended the Townsend meeting in Medford Friday evening.

● Mrs. Harriett Bates, who has been confined to her home for the past two weeks of illness, is improving.

● Guy Stager returned from Portland where he received medical treatment.

● Mrs. Roy Estes was shopping in Medford Saturday afternoon.

● Sam Hamilton, who has been confined at home the past summer of injuries received while working with a spraying machine, is able to be out again.

● The fire department was called out to a fire at Mrs. Elizabeth Huson's home on Wagner avenue last Wednesday evening. The fire was extinguished with the aid of the football squad which was near the scene and many others who assisted. The house was burned to the amount that a new roof had to be put on as soon as possible.

● Mr. and Mrs. Ed Maxon have sold their store to Mr. Batchelor of Medford who will take possession immediately.

● Last week while John Gore was walking along the railroad track, he was struck by a northbound train. He was taken to the Community hospital in Medford. The extent of his injuries have not been learned.

● Mr. Erbes moved his barber shop Sunday to his home on Railroad avenue. Erbes states that he has other plans in view than barbering this winter.

● Mr. and Mrs. F. Wedge returned home Sunday from a few days at Crescent City, Calif.

WHAT CAUSED THIS? ... FAULTY BRAKES!

But this driver was fortunate... he didn't lose his life! Why take such chances when YOU drive? Let us check the brakes today on our Weaver Safety Lane and adjust them correctly!

One stop on the Lane and you SEE the adjustment of each of your four brakes... also check your wheel alignment instantly, accurately!

CLYDE CATON'S JUNCTION GARAGE

Siskiyou Boulevard at Indiana PHONE 5311

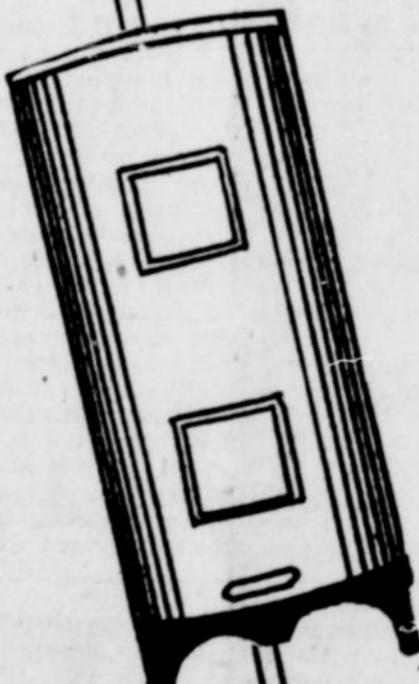

PAINTING • RETOUCHING • BODY & MOTOR REPAIRS

Just turn a faucet —any time of the day or night—anywhere in the house —for GALLONS of water, piping hot. Safe—and automatic—install it... then never give it another thought!

ENJOY THE LUXURY OF LOW-COST HOT WATER with an Automatic ELECTRIC WATER HEATER NOW ONLY

Electricity for Water Heating Costs Only 8 cents per kilowatt hour.

$59.50 INSTALLED

Pay Only $5.03 Down and $1.74 Monthly

Now on Display at your Dealer's or your COPCO store

NOTICE

THE REGISTRATION BOOKS FOR THE GENERAL ELECTION CLOSE ON OCTOBER 5, 1940

All persons wishing to register for the Presidential Election should register on or before this date.

G. R. CARTER
County Clerk