As I sit here thinking about church | 8-inch square pans, which have been suppers, my mind wanders back several years to the suppers I attended in my old home town. There was always a feeling of congeniality, of hospitality and fellowship. The annual church supper was something that couldn't be, and wouldn't be, missed.

Many times it was a covered dish supper. There was usually a great variety of food. The menu was divided up into the main dish, the salad, the bread and butter, and the dessert. Each lady of the church was made responsible for one item of the menu; and she, no doubt, prepared her own favorite recipe.

Can you pass a table containing a tempting assortment of foods without wanting at least a taste of everything? Can you decide whether or not you want the coconut cream pie which is heaped with whipped cream, or the rich-looking chocolate cake with the thick fudge icing, when you know that you are entitled to only one dessert? Of course not! Instead of having such a wide selection of food for a covered dish supper, why not plan a well-balanced menu so that everyone gets exactly the same? Hot Water Cheese Pastry.

Soak the crackers in the milk until soft. Then arrange crackers on top of pie and bake in a moderately hot oven (375 degrees) for 20 to 25

Right at the head of the silk parade of fall fashions comes daytime dresses, evening gowns, blouses, headgear, cunning little evening shawls and innumerable other accessory items made of silk jersey. For draping and achieving sculpturesque "lines," there is nothing in the entire fabric realm comparable to supple, lovely silk jersey.

Gray silk jersey is endorsed throughout the entire style parade, starting with blouses that will take er with the clam liquor, water, salt | you from luncheon right through to cocktails and important little dinners. For the most part these have long fitted sleeves, although the below-elbow length is also favored. The attractive blouse to the left in the illustration is typical. Romance and loveliness and feminine allure are at their height in a gown of soft gray-tone silk jersey as shown centered in the group. The bodice has a deep V-neck with much drapery coming from the shoulder to give fulness over the bust. The straight-falling generously full skirt slims into lines of infinite grace. Long sleeves accent the new "covered-up" look so definitely high-fashion for dinner gowns this season. The wide figure-flattering, tight draped midriff is enhanced by buckles jeweled with lovely pink moonstones.

Bi-colored silk jersey evening gowns continue to be fashion firsts. These have bodice and apron drapery in one color with midriff and skirt in another, in such dramatic combinations as flame red with black, accessoried with jet jewelry. Shows Pompadour

Smart hats for fall and winter are fashioned and worn to show off the new pompadour hair-do. Here are two hats that do just that-play up to the fashionable pompadour coiffures. The one at the top is a youthful version with a big brim that lifts off the face and swoops low to the nape of the neck. The foundation of the hat is black felt with gold, maroon and navy stitching over its entire surface. A trio of quills in gold, red and blue puncture the uplifted front brim. Spotted Furs Have Become the Vogue

If you keep seeing "spots before your eyes" don't be alarmed. It is simply fashion making a demonstration of what's what in fur coats and fur trimmings.

The tremendous vogue for leopard and ocelot and other of the spotted type pelts is developing almost to an epidemic of spots. When in doubt as to the fur to enhance your new cloth coat, use the spotted kind and you will be fashion correct.

The way spotted furs will crowd the grandstand this year is something to marvel at. There will be entire coats of leopard or ocelot. There will be muff and neckpiece sets with matching hats of the spotted fur. There will be more than that, for huge pockets of spotted fur are adorning cloth coats.

There's no end in sight of the procession of novelty accessory items that will enliven the fall and winter style picture. You will be seeing spotted fur gloves with belts made of the same material. Hand bags to match are available, and lapel gadgets of "spots." Of course the program includes smart headgear of spotted fur to "make good" a complete ensemble.

Thanks to a new invention, shipwrecked people will not, in future, be hit on the head by lifebelts thrown into the water. The new life-saving net is made of cork pieces arranged on a rope framework in meshes of square feet. It can be rolled up and kept in readiness, used as a ladder when unrolled down the side of a sinking ship, and will hold a large number of men in safety.

It cannot capsize, supports survivors without any effort on their part, and by keeping them together in groups makes their rescue
