Bicycle Safety Poster Will Be Distributed

Distribution of a bicycle poster entitled "Do's and Don'ts for Bicycle Safety," will be started by the state traffic safety division of the secretary of state's office in the near future, it was announced today. The poster is in three colors, 19 by 24 inches and stresses good bicycle riding practices by means of pictures and type.

The poster will be distributed to schools, clubs and other places where bicycle riders gather, it was announced. Any school or other group interested in obtaining these posters is invited to write to the Traffic Safety Division, secretary of state's office, Salem, Oregon, and the posters will be sent without charge.

Distribution of these bicycle posters is part of the state department's campaign against bicycle accidents, it was said. Another phase of the campaign is the bicycle manual which is now under preparation by the safety division.
