GASTINEAU WILL OPEN HOOP PLAY AT AHS DEC. 13TH

ONE of the toughest basketball schedules to face the Ashland high school Grizzlies in many years will get under way on the Ashland court Dec. 13 and 14 when the Bend Lava Bears will be entertained here in a double header. Practice sessions under Gerry Gastineau, entering his first year as head of the Ashland hoop squad, will get under way about Dec. 1 and the schedule slated to continue until Feb. 28 with Medford here.

One more game is yet to be scheduled with Klamath Falls but B. C. Forsythe, principal, was unable to say when the tilt will be booked.

Plans are being made for the Grizzlies to travel north during the Christmas holidays. The two games with Bend do not count in any standings and the games with Klamath Falls affect only the Southern Oregon conference race. All other games appearing on the schedule below count in the district race, the winner to go to the state tournament in March.

Roseburg will be playing with Ashland, Medford and Grants Pass in the district league this year.

The schedule follows:
Dec. 13—Bend here.
Dec. 14—Bend here.
Dec. 20—Open.
Jan. 3—Open.
Jan. 10—Grants Pass here.
Jan. 14—Roseburg there.
Jan. 17—Roseburg here.
Jan. 21—Grants Pass there.
Jan. 24—Medford there.
Jan. 28—Medford here.
Jan. 31—Roseburg here.
Feb. 7—Klamath Falls there.
Feb. 14—Grants Pass here.
Feb. 15—Medford there.
Feb. 18—Medford there.
Feb. 25—Grants Pass there.
Feb. 28—Medford here.

Beta Boys Win 1940 Intramural Honors

Trouncing the House of Crandall 26 to 18, the Beta Boys won the 1940 intramural basketball championship at the Southern Oregon College of Education last Friday afternoon.

Crandalls took a 4 to 2 lead at the end of the first quarter but were trailing 10 to 7 at halftime. The Betas continued to slowly pile up a lead in the rest of the game and at one time held a 21-11 advantage. Hoefs of Beta Boys and Scheiderer of Crandalls tied for high honors with eight points each.

JUNIOR HIGH CARNIVAL WILL BE TONIGHT'S FEST

A gala carnival, which has become an annual event in young student life in Ashland—and with parents, too—is in readiness for hundreds of visitors at the junior high school tonight, Nov. 8.

The huge junior gymnasium, scene of the carnival, has been bustling with extensive preparations during the week and booths, fishponds, movies and all the trimmings will greet throngs. The general public is invited to enjoy the affair.

FIRE-DAMAGED STUDIO WILL REOPEN DURING NEXT WEEK

The Bushnell studio at 293 East Main street, which was damaged by fire of unknown origin early Monday, will be reopened for business some time during the coming week, according to Wilbur Bushnell, owner.

Although flames soon were brought under control, heat, smoke and water caused damage estimated at about $1500 to stock and building, necessitating extensive remodeling work which is being pushed rapidly as possible.

SIMPSON'S MITES END SEASON IN 20 TO 0 VICTORY

Al Simpson's junior high football team closed its season in a blaze of glory Wednesday night on the local high school field when it stopped the Central Point high reserves 20 to 0 in a game that saw the juniors turn in the best performance of the season.

The "mighty mites" executed their plays like veterans and Wordsworth scored the first touchdown on a fake plunge through the center of the line that saw him travel 15 yards. He also scored the extra point through the line.

Ross, taking a lateral from Kerr, galloped 25 yards for the second score when he crossed the goal line standing up. Griffith scored the extra point through the line.

Arant, on a fake center plunge, lateralled to Ross who ran 20 yards for the final score. Griffith missed the try for point.

The Pointer reserves threatened Ashland's goal only twice as the juniors completely outplayed their opponents.

22 ANSWER SOCE HOOPMAN CALL

Two lettermen, four reserves and 16 new recruits answered Jean Eberhart's call to basketball practice at Southern Oregon College of Education last Monday. George Bassman and Jake Fisher are the lettermen back and the reserves from last year are Warren Foster, Joe Spayde, Gene Crites and Russell Werner. The new men trying out for the college hoop team are Merle Adams, Harold Brown, Bill Richardson, Don O'Hara, Darrell Copeland, Bob Hoefs, Ted Smith, Roland Scheiderer, Paul Lowery, Frank Mohns, Bob Haufle, Russell Webber, Lawrence Tribett, Norman Mayfield, LaVerne Johnston and Charles DeAutremont.

Len Yandle, who played here under Howard Hobson, will bring his St. Martin's college team from Tacoma, Wash., to Ashland for the first game on the SOCE schedule.

Other games definitely on the SOCE schedule are Humboldt State, Oregon College of Education, Eastern Oregon College of Education, Mt. Angel, and Albany College of Portland. Letters also are out to Portland university and Willamette.

Eberhart also is planning a trip for the Christmas holidays that will take his team to southern California where they will play a number of games and attend the Rose Bowl classic.

Of interest to Ashland casaba fans will be the plan to give the customers double and triple headers on any night that the schedules of the high school, junior high and college conflict. In the event this happens, the conflicting teams will play on the same floor on the same night.

LADIES' NIGHT TO HEAD ARMISTICE WRESTLE TREAT

INSTEAD of the four matches originally promised because of the forced cancellation of a bout on the last card, Promoter Mack Lillard has gone the wrestling fans one better and next Monday night, Nov. 11, will be ladies night along with three all-star bouts. Each lady accompanied by an adult paid admission will be admitted free of charge.

Lillard has signed Cowboy Dude Chick former world champion, to meet Ernie Piluso, the popular Klamath Falls Sonnenburg flash, in the top main event of one hour straight wrestling time.

Bulldog Jackson, who uses the painful hammerlock stomp along with his wide assortment of unethical tricks, will be up against a tough customer when he faces Jesse James in the middle bout. James is a smooth grappler but when an opponent wants rough play, James is just the man to give it to him.

George (Wildcat) Wilson, ex-All-American from the University of Washington, will meet Billy Rayburn, the Georgia Peach, in the opener, going to the mat at 8:30 p. m. Rayburn showed a lot of class against Piluso on the last card and stopped him cold when Piluso used Sonnenburg. This maneuver is Wilson's long suit and for that reason he might find himself in a lot of trouble before the bout is over.

Picker Chipman Piles Up Successes; Lets 10 More Teams Be Tops

Although this column didn't break into print last week, records show the writer did alright by himself by picking correctly nine out of a possible 10 to bring the average to .700 for the season. A total of 70 games have been selected with 21 wrong. Last weeks only bad one was Yreka over Ashland. There were too many reserves in Leighton Blakes lineup for our money.

The following paragraphs carry 10 sure-fire winners:
Medford will know they have been in a football game before the afternoon is over Nov. 11 at Medford but Ashland high won't quite conquer her bitter foe.

Bend travels to Klamath Falls on Armistice day and should slaughter the Pelicans.

Southern California, the mighty Trojan warhorse, will have a narrow squeak in beating California at Los Angeles tomorrow.

UCLA, long overdue in the win column, will spoil the Homecoming celebration of Oregon at Eugene tomorrow.

Oregon State and Washington State will battle it out at Corvallis Saturday with the Beavers licking the Cougars.

The toughest game of the Pacific Coast conference will take place at Palo Alto Saturday with the Rose Bowl bound Huskies of Washington winning out over Stanford.

Texas A&M, the other candidate for the Rose Bowl, will lick Southern Methodist at Dallas, Tex. Saturday.

Tom Harmon plays Minnesota at Minneapolis Saturday with Michigan favored in a tough game.

Northwestern, stinging under a 13-12 loss to Minnesota last week, will gain revenge on Illinois tomorrow. The game will be played at Evanston, Ill.

The fighting Irish of Notre Dame should win over Navy at South Bend, Ind., tomorrow.

Ashland Juniors Roll Over Klamath to Win

Behind 6 to 0 in the first quarter, Owen Griffith tossed a beautiful pass to Calvin Ross on a "dead-man" play and Ross galloped 60 yards for a touchdown to give Ashland junior high a 7-6 win over the Klamath Frosh on the local field Friday night. It was the first Ashland win in two years of play.

Just prior to the touchdown pass, a 30-yard toss to Kannasto on a "dead-man" play set up the Ashland score.

The juniors had several other chances to score but bogged down when near the goal line.

GRIZZLIES PUSH TO YREKA WIN

Quarterback Ken Caton scored twice against Yreka Miners at Yreka Nov. 1 to give Ashland high a hard-earned 12 to 6 victory.

The Grizzlies took the ball on the opening kickoff and worked it down to the Miner 9-yard line but lost possession. Both teams threatened to score in the first half but it was not until early in the third period that Caton took Charley Jandrea's pass in the flat to score for the Ashlanders.

Shortly after the fourth quarter started Ashland took possession of the ball and marched deep into Yreka territory and Caton went five yards through tackle to cross the goal line standing up.

Behind 12 to 0, the Miners were not to be outdone and pulled a long pass which started a drive that scored their only touchdown. The try for point failed after all three touchdowns.

Donnie Warren, starting quarterback, suffered a broken wrist when making a tackle.

Chet Fowler, alternating at left tackle and right end, turned in a whale of a game for Ashland as he was in on many plays that would have otherwise allowed Yreka long gains.

The spirit of victory was dampened somewhat when the Ashland players returned to their dressing rooms after the game to find that their clothes had been rifled and about $4 taken.
