2 NEWCOMERS TO SPICE MAT CARD MONDAY

TWO NEWCOMERS will show their ability at the Medford armory wrestling card Monday night, Nov. 18, when Promoter Mack Lillard presents another ladies night attraction.

The new men, providing the opener, which starts at 8:30 p. m., are Elton Owen, son of Promoter Herb Owen of Eugene, and Eddie Marcus, New York Jew. Owen is the former boxing and wrestling champion of the University of Oregon and weighs 190 pounds to Marcus' 185. Both are of the scientific type.

Jesse James, undefeated in Medford, tackles Ernie Piluso of Klamath Falls in the one hour top main event. James issued the challenge last Monday and is favored to give the Italian a run for his money.

Cowboy Dude Chick, who was defeated by Piluso last Monday, mixes with Billy Rayburn, the Georgia Peach, in the middle go. Rayburn is one of the sweetest wrestlers ever to set foot in a Medford ring and is becoming increasingly popular with the fans. Each lady accompanied by an adult paid admission will be admitted free.

Heavy Sport Program For Intramural Play Outlined by Simpson

Al Simpson, athletic director at the junior high school, is conducting an ambitious intramural sports program during the noon hour which includes all grades and gives the students recreation in the form of basketball, ping pong, shuffle board, badminton and horseshoes.

The 9-A's won the intramural six-man football championships which ended last week. Wednesday night started the intramural basketball tournament with three games nightly. Eleven teams are participating with the championships to be played Nov. 20. Regular Junior high varsity basketball practice will begin Nov. 25 with the juniors sporting new suits this season.

The ping pong, shuffle board, badminton and horseshoe tournaments will run until Jan. 1 when the championships in the various sports will be decided.

BASKETBALL OFFICIALS TAKE EXAMS SATURDAY

The test, compulsory for all loop officials, will take place at the high school and will be of the round-table discussion type which will follow closely a study of the rules.

The Little Numbers?

Have you looked at the little numbers on address slip of your Southern Oregon Miner and wondered? Well, in case you didn't know until now, they are the key to expiration date of your subscription. For example, suppose your label reads (at the right-hand end) 11-40—which means your subscription was paid up until November, 1940. If your label reads 2-41, or something like that, then relax, for it won't be due until 1941. But if it reads less than 11-40, tsk! tsk! tsk! You oughta come in and pay 'er up to date!

What, Xmas Already? Yep, Yule Greetings Ready for Delivery

In addition to this value, other card assortments have been placed in stock and may be seen at The Miner office. All cards are ready for immediate delivery—no waiting, no back-ordering, no substitutions. Persons interested in outstanding values in holiday greeting cards should make their selections now while stocks are complete and before the late season rush arrives.

GRIZZLIES PROMISE GRID VENGEANCE

Bouncing back after their 41 to 0 defeat at the hands of the Medford Tigers, Coach Leighton Blake and his Ashland high Grizzlies are drilling hard and pointing to the last game of their season with Roseburg there at 11 o'clock Thursday morning, Nov. 21. Blake said he was taking 20 boys on the trip but was uncertain Thursday who they would be.

Martin Herrin, who suffered a slight concussion in the Medford fray, will be shifted to right tackle if he is able to play. Bob Weaver will be moved to the fullback post with Ken Caton taking over Weaver's right half duties. Al Newby will be shifted to right end to make room for Herrin at the tackle post.

EBONY TORNADO BLOWS AHS HOPE

Medford high's Black Tornado took a dull 41 to 0 win over the Ashland high Grizzlies on a slippery Medford turf in the two schools' annual Armistice day clash.

Ashland suffered a terrific blow early in the first period when Martin Herrin, star fullback, was removed from the game with injuries.

Cato Wray scored three touchdowns for Medford with Orr, Hopkins and Barker accounting for one each.

Ashland failed to present a serious threat to the Tiger goal and was superior in only one department, punting, where the average was 29.6 yards on seven kicks, while Medford booted once for six yards.
