

Bend Wins Official State Football Title

The Oregon High School Activities association's trophy for the 1940 Oregon high school football championship went to the Bend Lava Bears after their 20 to 7 thumping of the Medford Tigers at Medford Saturday.

The two teams were deadlocked 7-7 at the half-way mark but in the third period Joe Huston's Bears began to roll. Jim Byers dashed eight yards to break the tie and a pass from Eby to Nicors finished Bend's scoring.

Four thousand fans witnessed the contest.

SUPER DUCKS TO PLAY SOCE HERE

The Southern Oregon College of Education varsity basketball team will oppose the University of Oregon Super Ducks, made up of Oregon players not good enough to make the U of O varsity and coached by John Dick and Howard Hobson, on the college court tonight, Friday, at 8:30 and Saturday night at 8 o'clock. There will be no preliminary for tonight's game but tomorrow night Lost River Dairy of Medford will probably meet the Little Sons. A small admission charge will be made for both games.

Coach Jean Eberhart has been drilling his team in a faster break which will make them a higher scoring five. Tonight's probable starting Sons lineup will be Paul Lowery and Chuck DeAutremont at forward, George Bassman at center and Jake Fisher and Gene Crites, guards.

Juniors Sign Four Basketball Contests

Al Simpson's Junior high basketball mentor, has definitely lined up four games for his 1940 team. He has several letters out for other games and plans to announce others as they are signed. The Juniors will host Roseburg here on a big basketball jamboree program Jan. 10 and will play Grants Pass there Monday, Jan. 13.

The Blue and Gold travels to Roseburg for a return game Jan. 31 and will meet Grants Pass here Feb. 7.

Simpson announced that his team will not participate in the SOCE basketball program Dec. 13.

Kemnitzer Sees Butte Falls Outfit as 'Tops'

Jack Kemnitzer, former SOCE varsity basketball star and now coach of the Butte Falls Loggers, has his eye on a first class team for the coming season. Already his team has downed the Little Sons and travel to Chiloquin Saturday for a game with Chiloquin high. The teams will play a return game at Butte Falls Saturday, Dec. 14.

The Jackson county B league gets under way Jan. 10 with a full schedule to released later.

Kemnitzer has a squad of nine men headed by Eddie Ellis, all-state and all-SOCE forward, and Leland Ellis, also all-tournament last year. Other lettermen returning are John Kent, Bud Tungate, and Billy Rogers. The remainder of the squad is composed of Bob Rogers, Glen Albert, Gordon Moore and Jess Francis.

A B league jamboree will be held in the new Central Point high school gymnasium Friday night, Dec. 13, when all teams composing the league will play for one quarter. The league is split in two sections and at the end of the evening of play the total score of each quarter will be added to see which section of the league wins.

Miss Freda Hiatt of Grants Pass is visiting here for several days with friends.

Mrs. Jack Robertson of Siskiyou was an Ashland visitor Monday.

15 Juniors Awarded Football Insignia

Fifteen members of Al Simpson's Junior high football squad received letter awards at an assembly gathering held in the school assembly hall recently.

Players receiving the awards were Joe McElfresh, Barney Riggs, Dick Kerr, Marvin Gettling, Jack Gunter, Ward Croft, John Delsman, Bill Barker and Richard DeMers, linemen, and Jay Samuelson, Fred Kannasto, Owen Griffith, Calvin Ross, Paul Wordsworth, Neil Arant, backs; A manager's letter was given to Dick Flaharty.

After a poor start, the juniors hit their stride in mid-season when they downed the powerful Klamath Frosh 7-6 and trounced the Central Point reserves 20 to 0. They lost their first four games to larger opponents in Medford and Grants Pass. The juniors scored 45 points to their opponents' 64 to set a record since they had failed to score in two years.

LADIES NIGHT MONDAY TO BE ADDED TREAT

ANOTHER ladies night wrestling card, with each feminine fan accompanied by an adult paid admission being admitted free, is in store for Medford armory fans Monday night, Dec. 9, when Promoter Mack Lillard will present Red Lyons, the Joplin, Mo., Ghost, against clever Jesse James in the top main event. Lyons, a good grappler, although inclined to be rough, will give James a tough go before the match is over.

Broccoli Bob Kruse, the old-timer from Oswego, will mix with Billy Rayburn in the middle tussle. Both men are smart wrestlers but Kruse likes to rough it up, especially if the going gets tough as it undoubtedly will with Rayburn as an opponent.

Elton Owen, son of Promoter Herb Owen, who made a successful appearance about three weeks ago, comes back for his second Medford appearance and will face a newcomer from Los Angeles, Ace Freeman, in the opener. Freeman is billed as slightly rough but Owen is capable of taking care of himself.

This match will get under way at 8:30 p. m.

AHS GRIDMEN GET LETTERS

At an assembly gathering Friday afternoon, 17 players of Leighton Blake's 1940 football squad were awarded their white "A". For five of the players, it was the last high school football award. The seniors are Bob Weaver, Earl Warren, Dick Westberg, Jim Smith and John Bergstrom. Bob Eroll, business manager, also is a senior.

Others receiving their letters were Bud Provoost, Chet Fowler, Albert Newbury, Clyde Garrett, Ivan Randles, Russell Hawk, Chuck Jandreau, Martin Herrin, Billy Elam, Don Warren, Ken Catton, LaMar Ormond and Elwood Hedberg, equipment manager.

The Grizzlies won four, tied one and lost three games this season for an average of 571 in Blake's first year as head coach.

A review of the season is as follows:

- Ashland 7, Lakeview 6.
- Ashland 0, Grants Pass 0.
- Ashland 6, Klamath Falls 14.
- Ashland 19, Myrtle Point 7.
- Ashland 13, Coquille 18.
- Ashland 12, Yreka 6.
- Ashland 0, Medford 41.
- Ashland 13, Roseburg 7.

BUSINESS GROUP TO MEET

The Federal Business association of southern Oregon will hold a luncheon meeting in the Lithia hotel dining room at 12:15 p. m. Thursday, Dec. 12, with Postmaster John H. Fuller as host. Following luncheon an election of officers for the coming year will be held. R. A. Work is president of the organization and Otto C. F. Krueger is secretary-treasurer. Frank Hull of Medford will talk on "Mechanics of the Selective Service Act."

College Cagers Dump Medford Quint 70-16 Here In Season Debut

Jean Eberhart's 1940 basketball team made its inaugural appearance on the SOCE court last Friday night by rolling to a lop-sided 70 to 16 win over a makeshift Lost River Dairy team from Medford.

Chuck DeAutremont sparked the Sons' offense as he scored 20 points. Employing a fast break, the college hoopsters piled up a 31 to 12 half-time lead and held their opponents to but four points in the second half.

In the preliminary, the Butte Falls high Loggers took a thrilling 41 to 40 win over the Little Sons.

MENTORS SET '41 GRID SKED

At a meeting of southern Oregon football coaches held here Wednesday night, a conference schedule was drawn up and Coach Leighton Blake of the Ashland high Grizzlies has announced a probable non-conference list of games for his 1941 team.

Lakeview will open the season here, probably Sept. 19, and the following week will mark the opening of the conference against Grants Pass here. This game will dedicate the new Ashland turf gridiron.

The Grizzlies go to Klamath Falls for conference play Oct. 10 and will oppose Coquille there, possibly Oct. 24.

Then comes the annual Medford-Ashland classic there Nov. 9, a conference scrap, and Roseburg provides Ashland with Thanksgiving opposition Nov. 20.

Coach Blake also is trying to line up games with Corvallis there and Dunsmuir and Yreka here.

Merrill Gunter left Wednesday for Pittsburg, Calif., where he plans to spend several weeks.

Mrs. Lela Christenson of Siskiyou was an Ashland visitor Monday.

Mrs. Roy LeVander of Talent visited here Tuesday at the home of Mrs. W. W. Robison.
