

LININGERS GET JOB

M. C. Lininger and Son this week were awarded contract for gravel at Kerby on their low bid of $14,670 by the state highway commission. Rock crushing machinery will be moved to the Redwood highway location from the Ashland plant.

FLU GETS HAMS

Because flu was cutting too deep inroads into Ashland Radio club membership, a proposed Christmas party for Dec. 23 has been called off.

COLLEGE FIVES WILL PLAY HERE

Ashland basketball fans will be treated to more college ball tomorrow night, Saturday, when the Southern Oregon College of Education quintet faces the Multnomah College Chiefs from Portland on the SOCE floor. Multnomah College is formerly Oregon Institute of Technology.

Last year the Chiefs won seven and lost three games, winning the Northwest Junior college championship and losing out to Monmouth in the playoff for a trip to the national AAU tournament.

Coach Paul H. Cushing has six returning lettermen for a nucleus of his 1940-41 squad and has announced his probable starting lineup as Bob Boss and Jack Shelley, forwards; Norman Wether, center; and Harold Ito and Bud Selliken, guards. Coach Eberhart of the Sons is at a loss to announce his starting five since illness and lack of practice time has hampered his squad since winning two over Albany College last week-end.

GRIZZLIES PAIR WINS OVER BEND

Jerry Gastineau's Ashland high basketball team successfully opened its current season Friday and Saturday nights with a pair of non-conference wins over the highly-touted Bend Lava Bears.

Friday night, on the SOCE floor, the first half was a nip-and-tuck affair with both teams looking ragged and missing several shots. Bend was ahead 13 to 11 at the end of the first half but the talk Coach Gastineau gave in the dressing room must have produced some fire for soon the Ashland boys went to work. Jandreau's foul tied the score and a basket by Weaver put the Grizzlies in the lead and from there on out Bend didn't have a chance.

Bill Eby of Bend led all scorers with 15 points and Weaver and Jandreau tied with 13 each.

Saturday night Buddy Provost sank a field goal that put his team in the lead early in the game and the Grizzlies were the masters from then on. The final score favored Ashland 31 to 22. Again Eby was high with 12 markers and Jandreau and Smith tallied 10 each. Halftime score favored Gastineau's club 18 to 10.

Mrs. Earl Leever made a business trip to Palm Springs late last week, returning to Ashland Wednesday.

Mrs. Ed Cary of Santa Cruz and Mrs. Thomas Gorman of San Francisco were here early in the week for the funeral of their father, G. H. Crowson.

Mr. and Mrs. DeVon Wray made a business trip to Medford Wednesday.

Otis Elliott of Baker is visiting friends in Ashland for several days.

William M. Briggs returned Wednesday from a business trip to Palm Springs. He was accompanied by his son, Bill, who has been attending school in southern California and will spend the holidays here.

Ashland Grizzlies To Meet Battery Quint Here Next Friday

Idle this week-end, the Ashland high Grizzlies will clash with Battery B, Ashland unit of the 249th Coast Artillery, at the Junior high gym Friday night, Dec. 27. The gate receipts, less expenses, will be used for the Battery mess fund benefit and all Ashland basketball fans are urged to attend.

The Battery, champions of their regiment at Camp Clatsop, is composed mostly of ex-Ashland high stars and boast such names in Ashland hoop history as Charley Warren, Ken Schilling, Walt Lee, Ardie Warren, Tiny Jones, George Bullion, Bob Strickland and Harold Baughman.

The Battery only last week dropped a thrilling game to the Astoria Coaches by one point after three overtime periods.

The game between Milton-Freewater and Ashland, originally scheduled for Jan. 11, has been canceled by the upstaters and Coach Jerry Gastineau stated that he will not try to fill the date since Ashland's annual hoop jamboree will be held Jan. 10 when the Grizzlies face the Grants Pass Cavemen.

Plans still are underway for a trip into the Willamette valley during the Christmas holidays when the Grizzlies meet Albany high once and Chemawa, formerly coached by Gastineau, in two encounters. There also is a possibility Ashland will go to Bend for a pair of games.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Henry left Tuesday for Pasadena where they plan to spend the winter.

Wet Feet? gargle LISTERINE
Prompt action may forestall trouble

Wet feet... cold feet... drafts... and fatigue, may lower body resistance so that colds develop and germs in the throat get the upper hand. After such exposures, why not help Nature to combat such germs on tissue surfaces by gargling promptly and frequently with Listerine Antiseptic. Tests showed that regular users of Listerine Antiseptic had fewer colds and milder colds than non-users.

BRACE OF WINS IS SOCE DEBUT

The Southern Oregon College of Education hoop squad took a pair of Oregon Collegiate conference victories over Don Faber's Albany College Buccaneers over the last week-end. The Sons scored first in the Friday night clash and were never behind, leading 29-18 at halftime. The final tally favored Sons 54 to 28.

Jake Fisher and Chuck DeAutremont tied for high honors Friday night with 12 each and Peterson, Albany guard who played with a stiff knee, was his club's high scorer with eight.

Saturday night's game was played at Central Point dedicating the new gymnasium there. When the smoke of battle had cleared away SOCE was ahead 45 to 28. Fisher again was big guns for the Sons with 13 and was closely followed by Koch of Albany who gathered 12 counters.

Albany started out to make a ball game of it and was leading 9 to 7 midway in the first period but dropped behind 15 to 11 at the halfway mark and was trailing 28 to 15 after 30 minutes.

Medford high's Tornado blew itself to a 47 to 32 conquest of the Little Sons in the Saturday night preliminary.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Salo and children left Wednesday for Minnesota for a holiday visit with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. P. S. Provost left Thursday for San Francisco where they will join their daughter, Sylvia, for the holidays.

Walter Hash of Dead Indian was a business visitor Wednesday.

Mrs. Minnie Gearhart of Klamath Falls visited here early in the week with her sister, Mrs. Viola Miller.

Dom Provost made a business trip to Klamath Falls Thursday.

Klamath Cagers Run Wild in Scoring Spree

If early-season scores mean anything, the Southern Oregon high school basketball conference might well sit up and take notice of the Klamath Falls Pelicans. Last Friday night the Pelicans ran wild in beating Yreka 61 to 13 in which 15 of Coach Dwight French's boys took part. The next night Dunsuir fell before the Klamathites 28 to 18.

French, in his 16th year at the helm of Klamath Falls basketball, has three returning lettermen. They are Marion Reginato, Eugene Love and Bob Erlanson. Altogether, 14 men round out the Pelican roster.

Tomorrow, Saturday night, the Pelicans face the rangy Roseburg five at Klamath Falls.

Don Halfhill, a student at Oregon State college, arrived here this week for the Christmas holidays.
