TALENT NEWS

Program Ends Grange Year

• The Talent Grange met for the last meeting of the year on Thursday night, Dec. 19. Five members of the Grange have not missed a meeting this year and as a reward each received a gift from the lecturer, Mrs. E. S. Robbins. The program for the evening opened in singing "It Came Upon a Midnight Clear." This was followed with a recitation by Carl Borg. The men's trio of the Grange sang "Silent Night, Holy Night" and "Joy to the World." Rawley Hartley gave a recitation which was greatly enjoyed by all. Earl Jones sang a solo, "The First Noel." The program ended with a gift exchange and each one also received a bag of candy and nuts. The hospitality committee for the next meeting will be Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Borg and Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Waiters.

• Paul Scofield arrived in Talent Saturday to spend the holidays with his parents. He is located at Camp Murray.

• H. E. Morgan, who has been confined to his home for the past two weeks with the flu, is able to be out again.

• Mr. and Mrs. Bob Locke and son Gerald are spending the holiday vacation in San Francisco.

• Clyde Moffatt and daughter Sally of Medford called at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Pfeifer Saturday.

• Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Pool of Taft, Calif. called on Roland Parks who was visiting in Talent Monday morning. They were enroute to Grants Pass to visit relatives over Christmas.

• Mrs. Alice O'Byrne and Mrs. George Thurston who are teaching school in California arrived here Monday to spend the holidays at their home.

• Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Tame spent Sunday at Rogue River, guests of Mr. and Mrs. Rupe. Mrs. Rupe, an elderly lady, suffered severe injuries recently in a fall at her home. Mr. and Mrs. Rupe are former residents of Talent.

• Roland Parks, principal of the Sprague River school, spent a couple of days visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Parks. Mr. Parks reports the thermometer registered 12 degrees below zero several mornings last week in Klamath Falls.

• Mr. and Mrs. Holden of Ashland visited Mr. and Mrs. Al Sheard Monday.

• Mr. and Mrs. Bert Nichols have purchased the lunch room recently operated by Mr. and Mrs. O. Carver. They took possession Wednesday. The Carvers have made no plans where they will reside.

• Mrs. Anna Dickey left Saturday for Jacksonville where she

HILT NEWS

Christmas Tree Draws Many

• A large turnout attended the Community Christmas tree and program presented by the Hilt elementary school Thursday evening.

• The program was entitled "Christmas Around the World" and consisted of a pantomime presentation of the Nativity, accompanied by songs of many lands, including "Oh Come, All Ye Faithful," "Christmas Carol from Lapland," "As Joseph Was a-Walking," "The Friendly Beasts," "Silent Night," "The First Noel," "Carol of the Shepherds," "O, Come Little Children," "Carol, Children, Carol," "March of the Kings," "Sleep My Child Jesus," "Cantique de Noel," and "Oh Thou Joyful Day," sung by a chorus of the grade school children under the direction of Miss Lucille Gansburg. The entire congregation joined then in singing "Oh Come, All Ye Faithful," "Silent Night" and "Hark, the Herald Angels Sing." Following the program all enjoyed the Christmas tree, the arrival of Santa Claus and the presentation of candy, oranges, nuts and popcorn to the children under the auspices of the Hilt Community Ladies club.

• May Emma Geroy, who is attending beauty school in Medford, spent the Christmas holidays with her parents and family.

• Billy Bernheisel, who is in training with the National Guard, arrived home late last week to spend the holidays with relatives and friends.

• Mr. and Mrs. Earle Temple of Sacramento arrived in Hilt Tuesday to spend a week with friends in Hilt and Hornbrook.

• Lawrence Sowell of Merrill is visiting at the James Purvis home where his mother has been a guest for some time. They leave for Portland Friday.

• Gino Ceccatto suffered a broken arm recently when he fell on a slippery sidewalk.

• Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ohlund and son Bob left Monday to spend the week in Portland.

• Gordon Alphonse is home from the College of the Pacific to spend his Christmas holidays.

• Donald Hord of Seiad CCC camp is spending the holidays with his family here.

• Mrs. Irene Wells sold her home in the south end of town to Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Schumate. Mrs. Wells moved to Ashland.

• The Methodist Sunday school held its Christmas program Sunday morning at 10 o'clock. There was a good attendance. The usual Christmas treat was distributed.

• The small house in which J. Maxon lives caught fire Sunday night from an over heated stove. Neighbors saved the building. The fire department was not called out.

• Mr. and Mrs. Roy Estes entertained at dinner Mr. and Mrs.
