LINCOLN GRADE SCHOOL NOTES

Miss O'Brien of Lincoln school gave a beautiful bouquet of flowers to room six. Bobby DeLisle went to her office and thanked her for the flowers, which came on Monday, Jan. 6.

On Monday, Jan. 6, the pupils of room six made diaries. Every day they put down the interesting things that happen. The children are having a lot of fun with them.

The fifth grade of room six elected new room officers on Jan. 6. The president is Dick Morrison; vice president, Ronald Nance, and the secretary is Mary Jean Henry.

The boys and girls of room six have some new student teachers. Their names are Miss Harwood, Mr. Mason, Mr. Deter, Miss Willard, Mr. Sage, Miss Bowron and Miss Ries.

Ronald Sequin is a new pupil in room seven. Ronald has been attending school at Grants Pass.

The sixth grade has six new student teachers. They are Mrs. Kerlinger, Mr. Ring, Mr. Marshall, Mr. Clarke, Miss Mann and Miss Westfall.

Miss Ida O'Brien, director of training, gave the sixth grade a beautiful bouquet of flowers. They make the room look very attractive. The children appreciate them very much.

Miss Bork invited the intermediate grades into her room to hear President Roosevelt's speech over the radio. The fourth grade children didn't understand all of it, but they enjoyed what they did understand.

The fourth grade of Lincoln school challenged the sixth grade of Miss Addy's room in a game of soccer. The fourth grade won by a score of four to two. It was a close game.

The second grade is studying about the post office.

● Mr. and Mrs. Fred Blum returned to their home in Tillamook Saturday after spending a week at the William Turner home. Mrs. Blum is Mr. Turner's sister. Ruby Turner accompanied them home for a visit of several days.
