

Tailored Silk Suits, Dresses Reflect Beau Brummel Styles

By CHERIE NICHOLAS

A FASHION that appeals to best-dressed women everywhere is the suit or costume tailored of either black or navy silk faille. There is a refinement and ladylikeness about these tailleurs that women love.

There is a patrician look about the suavely fitted, smartly detailed silk costumes in the illustration. You will be hearing much during the coming weeks about the Regency period fashions to which contemporary designers are turning for ideas or new inspiration. Our style creators are translating these costumes of the "dandies," who gloried in molded waistlines, peplum flared coatees, wide picturesque cuffs, fastidiously frilled waistcoats and wrist lingerie frills, into practical contemporary fashions, such as are here shown.

The black silk faille suit to the left in the picture reflects the Regency influences of the Beau Brummels of the past in its neat slender waistline, accented by a peplum silhouette, flared collar and cuffs and bouffed lingerie accents. The enormous felt hat is especially chic in that it typifies a smart, new millinery trend. These hats are particularly pretty in pastels, worn with either navy or black spring costumes.

The simplicity of the silk crepe dress to the right in the trio is a master stroke in costume design as interpreted this season by foremost designers. Note the new longer waistline. It is just this type of dress that invites lingerie accents. With a gown or coat dress of this sort, you can change it entirely with new accessories. Note the white frills in the sleeves.

Black wool and silk faille adapt well to the lines of the dressmaker suit centered in the group. The jacket features the new dropped shoulder yoke, with bracelet length sleeves and unpressed pleated peplum. Unpressed front pleats introduce new skirt interest. The blouse is of white mousseline de soie.

Another type of silk costume suit that is a leading fashion is the redingote ensemble. The great advantage is that the redingote can be worn either with its companion dress of faille or crepe or with print frocks. Many of the new redingotes are strictly tailored in straight slim lines. Others depart from the straight and narrow path by introducing front pleats and sometimes back yokes to give freedom across the shoulders.

Very smart, too, are black or navy silk coats, elaborately braided down the fronts. Also, a striking new note are glittering jeweled buttons, fastening the jacket of simple black or navy silks. Many flower buttons in realistic colorings are used on the new silk tailleurs.

Print-Bow Trim

The ingenious use of print with plain is outstanding fashion news for spring. Especially attractive and chic is a new print silk bow technique used in jacket and bodice fastenings, as illustrated. The black, white and golden yellow silk print is striped horizontally for the dress, with the stripes applied in bands to the black wool jacket. Unpressed pleats give subtle fullness to the skirt. This model shows that the idea of print with plain is being used with refreshing originality.

Shades of Deep Purple

Seen in Spring Fashions

Purple and violet and kindred shades are color features being highlighted this spring. Many suits and cape costumes are tailored of purple or violet-toned tweeds this spring. Topped with a fetching little straw chapeau, trimmed in violet, with violet boutonniere to match, this ensemble sings fashion's spring song.

The new lavenders and purples go charmingly with navy. Lots of white frills on a navy suit, navy or violet felt hat with violet flower trim and you're ready for the sun! Lavender veils or light green ones are accessory "musts" with purple ensembles.

Bright Red Colors

Red is registering one of the biggest color triumphs of the season. Young girls "dote" on the new red coats and jackets, some of which fasten with military brass buttons.

Prints with red backgrounds are creating a sensation. Some are patterned with navy or black or beige and green motifs. You really must have a red print frock.

It's the fashion to match hat and handbag this season. Try carrying out the idea in red straw or fabric, and don't forget to add a red veil. You will like red accents with your navy suit or redingote ensemble, and red accessories will add an exotic touch to your new beige outfit.

Chinese Hats

A custom among Chinese maidens is to wear clusters of flowers at each side of the head. It is this pretty headress which has given inspiration for a new fashion that some predict will develop into an important vogue during the coming months. A noted American millinery designer has devised a band that curves to fit the head. This is covered with ribbon, and at each side flowers or ribbon bows are attached. You wear this fitted bandeau like little girls used to wear round combs. This is a real help to those who prefer to go hatless.

THE PAPERS OF PRIVATE PURKEY

Dear Ma—

I got your last letter and I wish you would stop worrying about me not getting enough sleep on account of having to get up so early in the morning. It won't do no good for you to write the camp general telling him that you know I need more sleep and will only make me a laughing stork. And, ma, it is silly for you to say you think maybe you can influence the general to let me sleep later mornings on account my grandfather served in the Spanish-American war. They don't even rate that as a war any more.

Anyhow I get enough sleep even if they do make me get up at day-break. I know when I was home I couldn't get to sleep when I went to bed at 9 or 10 but up here I am plenty tired and I don't have to count no sheep. But there is one feller in my tent who has insomania and he keeps hollering "Halt" over and over all nite because instead of counting sheep he tries to challenge 'em. I got used to this now and he don't bother me.

I guess it aint so bad being in a army today because a mess sergeant up hear who was in the last war says they had insects called cooties in it and he made me itch all over by just describing 'em. He says they were a cross between a soft shell crab and a bedbug but we never had no soft shell crabs in our house, ma, so the descripthun is lost on me partly. He says these camps are so sanetarry that a soldier cant even get dirty if he wants to and he says no man can say he is a war hero until he has had cooties.

He says the reason the Allies licked Germany in the last war was the German soldiers had more cooties on 'em than the allies and he says if we get into this war it will be settled the same way.

The cooking is a lot better now that the cooks are getting out of the amachure class but how I would go for some of your griddle cakes or frickerseed chicken, ma. Somehow a frickerseed chicken in an army looks like the bird was still resisting up to the minitt the chef stopped cooking it. Nobody can make soup like you can either ma. The soup in a army always tastes like the cook wuzent sure if he was making a soup a chowder or a stew.

I know how to oil a gun now, ma. I always thought a gun was self oiling. All I knew about guns was what I seen in the moving pitchers and I never saw nobody oil a gun even Jimmy Cagney. But I learnt here that a gun has to be loober-cated and it is quite a job. The captain says oil is the life of a gun and I give mine plenty of oil as I want it to live to reach a ripe old age. I am glad you liked the snapshot I sent. It was taken after inspection. We get inspected every few minutes and they are very fussy if they find a little thing like a thread on my shoulder or a button off. The army is very particular about buttons and I guess the general thinks one button off a coat can lose a battle.

I still wish they had cavalry in war as I luv horses and I think it is more fun to train on horseback than on foot but war has got so bad that horses won't have nothing to do with it.

Well, there goes the bugle for another drill but don't worry as it is all automatic with me now and when I aint drilling I think sumthing is all wrong.

Your loving son,
Oscar.

PATTERNS SEWING CIRCLE

nial but ever varied smartness. Here's a new design (No. 1338-B) that gives you a new slant on an all-important style—specifically, the rakish angle of the buttoned pockets, stressed by rows of stitching. The notched collar is made with the new longer points. Easy to make, to put on and to wear.

This classic style makes up smartly in practically every run-about fabric—flat crepe, thin wool, spun rayon and silk print. Pattern provides for short sleeves, or long sleeves in the popular bishop style. Detailed sew chart included.

Pattern No. 1338-B is designed for sizes 12, 14, 16, 18 and 20. Corresponding bust measurements 30, 32, 34, 36 and 38. Size 14 (32) requires, with short sleeves, 4 yards of 39-inch material; long sleeves, 4 1/2 yards. Send order to:

TIPS to Gardeners

REGARDING HERBS

MANY home gardeners may be interested in growing herbs this year because of the war, and because they make everyday dishes more appetizing and flavorful.

Herbs may be grown in a plot about four by six feet to supply the average needs of a family. They should have full sunlight and be planted in good loamy soil.

Almost all popular herbs—balm, basil, borage, fennel, marjoram, rosemary, thyme, sage, anise, dill, and caraway—may either be used when young, and fresh, or prepared for use dried.

Anise, basil, borage, dill and savory are annuals; caraway, and fennel are biennials, and balm, marjoram, sage, rosemary, thyme and chives are perennials, although balm and marjoram are best treated as annuals.

All the herbs mentioned here will probably produce enough growth for use the first year, however, if seeds are planted early, and climate is normally temperate.
