Lincoln School

By SCHOOL STUDENTS

There is a new boy in room five. He is from Los Angeles. He came to Lincoln school Thursday, April 17. The boys and girls are very glad to have him.

The fourth grade challenged the sixth grade to a game of baseball. The referee was Donald Beigel of room seven. He was a very fair referee. The score was 11 to 0 in favor of room eight.

Mrs. Dunn from Klamath Falls loaned the fourth grade of Lincoln school a pair of wooden shoes to help them in their study of the Netherlands. They appreciated seeing them. Miss Hough tried the shoes on. When she walked she looked very funny.

The pupils of room seven have divided into two teams, the Yank-ees and Bulldogs in arithmetic. They are enjoying seeing which team gets the better daily record in arithmetic and how large a score they can make for their team.

New patrol members from room seven are Ione Hill, Louise Schilling, Wilbur Watson and Dale Watson.

During the science class on April 21, room six had a set of glass slides. They showed the formation of igneous rocks. Mr. Coffin had samples of rocks to show to the class.

The girls in room eight were challenged by the girls in room seven to a game of baseball. It was a very interesting game. The score was six to three in favor of room eight.

The boys of room eight were challenged by the boys of room six to a game of baseball, Tuesday April 15. Room eight won, 5 to 6, but room six was ahead first and nearly won.

The second grade has a new girl. Her name is Virginia Pritch-
