NEWS FROM

Washington School

By SCHOOL STUDENTS

Aleta Luchterhand who moved to Klamath Falls came to visit us Friday.

Roy Rogers made a bird hotel. We hope all the rooms will be soon taken.

We have five birthdays to celebrate this month. We expect to have some happy times.

Clarence Sibley is a new pupil in the second grade. He came here from Nevada County in California. Clarence lives on the Nutter place and walks to school. He tells us it is one and one-half miles.

Robert Oden is eight years old today—May Day. He brought a beautiful basket of roses to school. It is on the teacher's desk.

All the children made May baskets at school.

In the Washington School there are two baseball teams. Their names are the Dirty Shirts and the White Socks. They play every Tuesday night at 3:20.

Room five defeated room six 10 to 0. It was played Wednesday afternoon. Only one half of an inning was played. It will be finished this afternoon. Gerald Kerr made two home runs. Robert Fowler made one home run and David Scofield made one home run also.

Joanna Brown is absent from school with asthma. We are very sorry she is out of school. We all want her to come back as soon as she can.

At the Music Festival around sixty went to be in it. Most of them were in the chorus. Some were violin players. They all enjoyed going. It was on Thursday and Friday.

Room Six has a new pupil. Her name is Jean Underhill. She came from California. We are glad to have her.

Room Six has been answering Richard Mishke's letter. We received a letter from him from South America.

NEWS FROM

Lincoln School

By SCHOOL STUDENTS

Mr. Rush found some baby robins in a nest by the school building. He took a step-ladder out and let the children in room two climb up and see the baby birds. They were just learning to fly.

The first graders in room two wrote letters to Mr. Baughman and Mr. Wenner. They wrote to see if they could visit the fire station and the bank. They want to see how to make a fire station and a fire engine to play with. They want to see how to make a elroy for their play bank.

Elroy Clark is painting his office desk dark blue.

The first graders are learning some stunts for play-day. They did the knee-dip, cartwheel, somersault, Chinese-get-up and many others.

The boys of room five who did not attend the music festival entertained the boys and girls of room six who remained at school. The fifth graders were told that they were going to have a hard examination. The examination turned out to be a party. The fourth graders brought games from home and they served cookies and punch. Everyone had a jolly time.

Some of the girls in room five danced "Pop Goes the Weasel" in the music festival. The other girls in this grade danced the "Norwegian Mountain March." All of the girls enjoyed the music festival very much.

Mr. Wilda, art teacher, made a baseball spelling chart for the sixth grade in room eight. The room is divided into two teams. Score last week was 17 to 13 in favor of the Boston Bees. The Bees have won three games and the Red Sox two games. The captains are Charlene Roberson for Boston Bees and Bary Christlieb for the Red Sox. It is fun to have a spelling chart.

April 25 room six challenged room eight in baseball. The game was very interesting. The score was four to two in favor of room eight. Curtis Vail was a very good umpire.

The council chose new playground and hall patrol. Beth Gray and Beverly Wycoff are the hall patrol from room six. Catherine Silver and Bobby DeLisle are members of the playground patrol from that room.
