Bonnie Moseley has come back from just having the poison oak. We are glad she is back. She has been gone a long time.

Bonnie and Lonnie Moseleys' little sister Fern came to school to visit us Friday. We enjoyed her very much.

Paula Ostrander brought a mole to school Monday afternoon. She passed it around the room.

Room four has just completed a unit on animal study. We have studied about animals in North America. We used the balopticon and our teacher told us about them. We each had certain animals to report on. In art we drew pictures of animals. We have had two tests in animal study. We all like this kind of study. I reported on the bat.—Karna Henson.

Paula Ostrander returned Monday to school after having had the flu. We all missed her and are glad she is back in room four.

We are sorry that Shirley Weitzel has to be absent from school on account of rheumatic fever.

Dwight Schneider also is absent with a badly infected foot. His parents took him to Sacramento for care.

Barbara Dawson is absent because of measles. We hope all our sick will soon be back in school in room six.

The P-TA met at the Washington school Thursday, May 8. Miss P. Geiser, part-time school nurse, spoke on health. The first graders sang "His Garden." Sandra Schuerman, Margaret Clary and Nancy Graber spoke Mother's day pieces. The 60 members of the twirling team performed. The Washington school chorus sang two numbers, "Amaryllis" and "Mammy's Little Coal Black Coon." Room six gave "For Mother on Her Day," a Mother's day playlet. Room two sang a Mother's day song and presented a May pole dance. Refreshments were served. Mrs. Schneider who was to have given a report on the P-TA meeting in Eugene was unable to be present.

The telephone talks their language, too

"Hi, Spike, bring your mitt!"... "Let's sleep out in Skinny's yard tonight!"—pressing affairs, handled man-to-man over the telephone. Later, those interests will branch out. Not Skinny and Spike down the street, but Chicago, Vancouver, New York, Buenos Aires.

The telephone "talks" all languages, serves countless needs. Bell System research is constantly finding ways to make it still more useful.
