BELCASTRO AND McSHAIN FEUD TOPS MAT CARD

Promoter Mack Lillard, always anxious to please the wrestling fans, has answered their many requests and signed Pete Belcastro, the Wild Italian from Weed, to meet Danny McShain, Hollywood roughneck, in the top main event at Medford armory Monday night.

These two met a week ago last Monday and, although McShain won, he was given a thorough going-over by Belcastro. The two men resorted to everything they could think of and even carried the match into the laps of spectators. Ever since Belcastro has been after a rematch but McShain refused to go through with it. After considerable dickering and insistence on the part of Lillard, McShain accepted the match and now Belcastro will be out gunning for sweet revenge come Monday night.

Last Monday night, when Belcastro issued a challenge to McShain from the ring, he offered to donate his share of the purse to some charity chosen by the wrestling commission, but in order to get McShain to agree to the bout, Lillard arranged for the winner to take all money set aside for this fray.

A supporting card of two matches of six 10-minute rounds each will be arranged today with one of the principals to be a newcomer in the person of Jim Hefner, making his first appearance in any southern Oregon ring.

HINDSIGHT ON SPORTS

By I TOLD YOU SO

Official word from the district WPA office assures Ashland that the government will not take away any money from the high school athletic project, Walter Phillips field, and that the job will be rushed to completion as soon as possible. It's only four months and 10 days before the opening game with Lakeview here and the WPA crew will have to hustle if we are to sit back in a comfortable grandstand and watch our grid machine perform on its own turf.

It's a sore shoulder that's keeping Bob Hardy from breaking into the pitching duties of the Beaumont Exporters in the Texas league. Bob is a local product and belongs to the Detroit Tigers.

Several Ashlanders who made good on the grid and maple boards for dear old AHS are now making good for the Southern Pacific. Among them are Phil Keeton, Headrick Baughman, Cliff Bromley, Larry Gill, Dick Hitchcock and Hod Dunn in the train service and Carl Harris in the engine service.

Although Bill Read of the Medford Tigers has been in the hair of Ashland high athletes recently, this column must take off its hat to him. Last week he pitched a no-hit, no-run game against the Grizzlies to blank them 5 to 0.

Leighton Blake, Grizzly track coach, says he's sworn off attending meets in which his team takes part. Recently when he was confined with rubella, his charges went to Jacksonville and won their first meet of the year.

Earl Schilling, bakery baron, acted the role of umpire in Sunday's ball game and left a very bad taste in the mouths of the visiting Prospect players and aided Ashland in an 11 to 8 win, according to the Prospecters.

ASHLAND TEAM HALTS PROSPECT

Ashland's baseball team got an 11 to 8 revenge over Prospect at Fuller field Sunday when the locals gave the Mountaineers their first set-back of the current season.

Leonard Warren turned in a swell game on the mound until he tired at the end of the fifth inning. At that time Ashland was ahead 11 to 5. Here Jack Clark took over and was relieved by Manager Ernie Francis after an inning and a half. Bert Larson, catcher, did the best hitting for Ashland and collected three for five. Bobby Hoefs hit safely twice in four trips to the plate.

Hill of Prospect batted four for five, one a circuit clout.

Box score:	H	R	E
Ashland	12	11	2
Prospect	10	8	0

Ball Club Sponsors Benefit Dance

A dance, featuring King Tutt's four-piece band, will be held at the Chateau tonight for the purpose of raising funds to support the Ashland baseball team. The money raised at the public affair will be used to buy balls and bats so that the organization might continue playing throughout the summer.

The Ashland team, under direction of Ernie Francis, is made up solely of local material with no outsiders in the lineup to bolster the ranks. This social event certainly deserves the support of Ashland residents since an evening of dancing at the popular Chateau might enable these boys to continue playing baseball for the summer months.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Karl Oeser, May 6, a daughter.

Medford Netters In 6-1 Win Over Juniors

Medford junior high tennis players downed Ashland juniors 6 to 1 on the Medford courts Wednesday afternoon. Jimmie Bartelt and Lantis, playing number two doubles for Ashland, won the only match for the locals when they defeated Faden and Knips 6-4, 2-6, 2-1. The last set was cut short because of rain.

Other Ashland scores, local players named first, follow: Provost lost to Alfred 6-1, 6-3. Lantis lost to Wisenberger 3-6, 6-4, 6-2. Bartelt lost to Eaden 3-6, 6-4, 6-4. Landing lost to Knips 1-6, 6-3, 6-1. Jandreau lost to Barrow 9-7, 6-2.

Croft and Provost lost to Wisenberger and Alfred 6-4, 6-2. The two squads meet again at Medford May 16 and here May 20.

AHS and GP Nines Split Twin Bill

Jerry Gastineau's Ashland high baseball nine split a double-header with Grants Pass high there Tuesday, winning the first game 1-0 behind the two-hit pitching of Charlie Jandreau and lost the second 4 to 3 when Russ Hawk did the pitching chores for the locals, yielding three blows.

In the first game Hawk slammed out a nice double and came home on Provost's single to score the Grizzly's lone tally. In the other game, however, he walked a batter and an error by Jandreau at short stop paved the way for the winning GeePee run.

Miss Della Stevenson, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Nichols, Vivian and Lee Kerr and Miss Billie Bowman went to Crater Lake Tuesday.
