HINDSIGHT ON SPORTS

By I TOLD YOU SO

As predicted in this column last week and contrary to a report in a Medford paper, Ashland's Paul Hess did not pitch against Crescent City for the Medford Rogues in last Sunday's Southern Oregon league clash at the coast town. Paul says he's had enough.

And, in all fairness to Paul, if a certain Medford sports writer insists on quoting this column, why doesn't he give the FULL reason Paul has quit the Rogues?

Those "sensational Crater kids," the Portland high school infield of the Medford state league club, looked anything but sensational, not to mention good, against a powerful Klamath Falls club at Medford over the week-end. The Pelicans copped the Saturday night exhibition tilt 13 to 7 and the Sunday afternoon fracas 12 to 7. This column suggests something be done to make the Medford ball club worthy of state league competition.

Leighton Blake, until the end of the spring term athletic coach at Ashland high school, zipped through town Sunday morning in his brand new fire-wagon red Chrysler convertible coupe which he had just purchased in Detroit. He took over his new duties with the Columbia River Trucking company in Portland last Monday morning.

Bob Hartly, Ashlander on the pitching staff of the Beaumont Exporters in the Texas league, shut out San Antonio last week 6-0. Hardy's club gathered seven blows, two by Bob himself, while the losers hit safely nine times.

Crescent City Ends Rogues' Win Streak

With Manager Paul (Hoosier) Hoffard doing his own pitching, the Medford Rogues dropped their first Southern Oregon league game 6-5 to Crescent City Sunday. Hoffard let the Merchants down with only six hits but errors proved costly to the league leaders.

In the other SOL game, Rogue River fell before the big bats of Grants Pass 12 to 0 at Grants Pass.

Next Sunday Medford goes to Rogue River and Crescent City plays at Grants Pass.

....After the horse is GONE!

It's Just "TOO BAD"

A man must feel foolish when he buys insurance AFTER "the horse is gone." It is better to get protection than not at all! Will people say "too bad" after your mishap or will they say "lucky you have insurance?"
