HINDSIGHT ON SPORTS

By I TOLD YOU SO

Walter Phillips field, the new Ashland high school athletic enterprise, is at last beginning to look like an athletic stadium. The grass is up and was mowed for the first time this week. The grandstand is beginning to take shape so that a person can tell by looking at it what it is intended to be. The fence is nearly completed around the whole set-up.

Speaking of the fence, it looks to Hindsight that the football officials are still going to be troubled with having to chase the ball into the Phillips' back yard every time a pass or goal kick is attempted at the north end of the stadium. In order to make the project level, the north end of the grid is raised considerably and the top of the north fence comes just about level with the field. It looks as if longer boards should have been used on this northern fence. But the construction men probably know what they are doing. And if that grandstand is completed in time for the opening game with Lakeview here Sept. 19, this department misses its guess.

When the project still was on paper, Hindsight stuck out for a color scheme of red and white, to match with the school colors, but it looks as if we lost out for Supt. Theo J. Norby says it will be done in green with a cream trim.

SOCE Students Plan Social Program

The associated summer school students of Southern Oregon College of Education have planned the following social and recreational program for the first summer session:

Tuesday, July 1—Swimming party, Twin Plunges, Janet Baxter, Baker, chairman.

Tuesday, July 8—Golf party, Ashland Golf club, Edmund Dews, Ashland, chairman.

Saturday and Sunday, July 12, 13—Over-night picnic at Lake of the Woods, Roland Parks, Sprague River, chairman.

Tuesday, July 15—Oregon History club trip to Jacksonville, sponsored by Oregon History club.

Thursday, July 17—College play, "High Tor," SOCE auditorium, Angus L. Bowmer, director.

Two successful events, a steak feed and a gym party, have already been held. Damon Clifton and Austin Haddock, both of Ashland, were chairmen of these events, respectively, according to Marshall E. Woodell, registrar at the college.

fight pictures will be on the Varsity screen Friday and Saturday, July 11 and 12. The pictures, made by Pathe and distributed by RKO, are the clearest and best pictures it has ever been the privilege of this department to see and anyone missing them will miss a great fight picture.

Recreation Program Needs More Youths

Still more youngsters are needed for the summer recreation program, according to Director Al Simpson.

Ashland has been divided into four sections for softball and a league will be formed with the teams of these four sections making out the schedule. The dividing lines are Second street and Siskiyou boulevard.

Now that the rain apparently is over, Simpson expects the program to get into full swing. There are schedules for golf, baseball school, swimming, tennis and other sports available for all interested. Simpson says anyone from six to 60 can come out.

EDMUND DEWS RECEIVES SCHOLARSHIP AT STANFORD

Edmund Dews, a junior college student at the Southern Oregon College of Education, has just received word from President Lyman Wilbur of Stanford that he has been granted a full tuition scholarship at Stanford University for the school year 1941-42.

Mr. Dews has been a student at the Southern Oregon College of Education for a period of two years. During that time he has made practically a straight "A" average for the two years. He is a graduate of the Ashland High School and is the son of Mrs. Ruth Dews of Ashland.
