EXPERT BUYERS

to prices that are being asked for what we intend to buy, and as to the quality we can expect, the advertising mns of this newspaper perform a worth while service which saves us many dollars a year.

 It is a good habit to form, the habit of consulting the advertisements every time we make a purchase, though we have already decided just what we want and where we are going to buy It. It gives us the most priceless feeling In the world: the feeling of being adequately prepared.

 When we go into a store, prepared beforehand with knowledge of what is offered and at what price, we go as an expert buyer, filled with self-confidence. It is a pleasant feeling to have, the feeling of adequacy. Most of the unhappiness in the world can be traced to a lack of this feeling. Thus adver-tising shows another of its manifold facets—shows Itself as an aid toward making all our business relation more secure and pleasant.
