WORLD CHAMP

JIMMY LONDOS, above, international heavyweight wrestling champion, opens the summer wrestling season at Medford Fairgrounds park Monday night, July 14, when he faces Pete Belcastro. Others on the card include Dude Chick vs. Billy McEwen and Ernie Piluso vs. George Wagner.

HINDSIGHT ON SPORTS

By I TOLD YOU SO

Realizing an eight-year ambition, Promoter Mack Lillard has finally signed Jim Londos, international heavyweight wrestling champion, to face Pete Belcastro in the main event at Medford Monday night. The card will be the first of the summer season and will be held in the outdoor arena at the Medford Craters ball park.

Londos is by far the fanciest mat performer in the world and Lillard has done the southern Oregon fans a good deed by signing him. The king of the world heavies has made more money on the mat than Jack Dempsey did as boxing champion. He has appeared in the biggest arenas all over the world and Lillard's bringing him to Medford puts the town among the big-time.

Martin Herrin and Chet Fowler, a couple of AHS kids who are looked upon to do things for the high school football team next season, are conditioning themselves in Klamath Falls by rustling freight for the Southern Pacific company. They will be given leaves of absence next fall to return to Ashland and continue their schooling. It wouldn't hurt some of the other grid prospects to do a little summer conditioning, either.

Wing, who are going back to Fort Lewis with the troops. They had a stopover at Grants Pass. Archie will be home next week on a 10-day furlough.

Mrs. R. D. Reynolds and Esther Wade were very successful with the concession they had in the park the 4th and a nice sum was realized by both.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor York and daughter Katherine were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Dave Hood in Medford the 4th.

Vida Williams is employed part time at Hiram's ice cream parlor.

The 4-H club members are invited to the Lake of the Woods to the 4-H club camp. Girls are to go from July 27 to Aug. 2; boys are to go Aug. 3 to Aug. 9. These in Bellview wishing to attend should phone Mrs. Reynolds.

at Nubieber spent the week-end with his wife and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Farmer.

Bill Sikes who is employed at the Shasta dam spent the 4th with his mother, Mrs. Grace Sikes.

Rev. Young, pastor of the Lutheran church at Medford, held services at the Ed Grimm home Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. John Heilmeyer went to Grants Pass Tuesday to visit with their son Archie and Mrs. Heilmeyer's nephew, Grover

Craters Turn Back Crescent City Nine

The Oregon State League Medford Craters turned back Crescent City of the Southern Oregon League 3-1 Friday afternoon and again Saturday afternoon to the tune of 7 to 3 as a part of the Fourth of July celebration at the coast city.

In the junior American Legion circuit, Medford dropped a Sunday double-header at Roseburg 12 to 8 and 9 to 5 at the Medford high school park. Bud Provost of Ashland pitched the last game which ended 3-3 in seven innings. He gave up but two hits. The first clash also went into extra innings and the scoreboard read 8-8 at the end of nine frames.

The Medford Rogues take on Grants Pass Sunday in a SOL game.

Promoter May Add Weekly Mitt Cards

A little later in the summer season, Promoter Mack Lillard of Medford plans to put on some boxing bouts along with his regular wrestling program. And then if plans of the proposed army cantonment develop, Lillard plans to promote weekly boxing cards as well as the wrestling bouts.

In a conversation with the Miner sports editor this week, Lillard said he would like to see some local boxing talent developed for his cards in Medford and Klamath Falls.

Anyone interested in training with an eye to some matches on these cards are asked to get in touch with Harry Chipman. It of-
