IF FIRE

—should force you from your home, the money you would have to pay for temporary quarters elsewhere could prove doubly burdensome because it would come at a time when you could least afford it.

That is why, in addition to your fire insurance, you should protect yourself with Rental Value INSURANCE. Following damage by fire or any other specified hazard, this policy would pay you each month the rental value of your home while it was being made habitable. Telephone us and we'll gladly give you full details. No obligation.
