NEWS FROM

Lincoln School

By SCHOOL PUPILS

The Lincoln school band was organized Monday, Sept. 22. There were several different instruments such as saxophone, snare drum, cornet, trumpet, trombone, clarinet and a flute. There are 28 children in the band. Many of the members are new players. Mr. Tripp, instructor, will have lessons three times a week.

Monte Wray entered the third grade Monday. He had been visiting his grandparents in Idaho. He went to his grandparents' golden wedding.

ROOM 2

Gary Crowson came to our room. He brought a bat. He showed us the bat. He told us about it. He had it in a little box. The bat walked and walked. We saw his wings. We saw him climb.

We saw a white rabbit. It had lots of fur. The rabbit was taking a nap. He had a carrot to eat. He had an apple, too. We saw him out of his cage. We read a story about him. Sarah Bishop brought him to our room. She is in Room one.

The fourth grade boys of room five have been very successful in challenging games with the boys from rooms six and seven. They have not lost a game yet.

The fifth grade boys and girls have organized a room club. The name is Playmates club. Camille Frulon is the president. Venita Robinson is vice president and Mary Jane Coleman is secretary.

The fifth grade girls of Lincoln school challenged the fourth grade girls in a game of baseball Tuesday. The score was 12 to 2 in the fifth grade's favor. It was a good game.

Room seven made pictures of their vacations. There were only three people who went to the same places.
