"THE TRUTH WILL SET YOU FREE"

More Action Needed!

Surveys of public opinion indicate a strong trend towards the idea that the first requisite of a more than temporary peace is the defeat of Hitlerism. Yet as America more openly and loudly proclaims this stand, a report on the production of the defense industries shows that we have failed to back our words with sufficient action. Knudsen has pointed out that today's wars are "won in the shop" and the nazis and their slaves are continuing to best us in production in spite of our resources and facilities while we still cling to the "business as usual" attitude, turning out pleasure cars and allowing various monkey wrenches to be tossed into the defense mechanism.

One of the most inexcusable of these obstructions to production is work stoppage caused by union rivalry where working conditions are not involved and where union welfare takes precedence over national welfare. A very childish example of these union squabbles came to light last week in a Toledo, Ohio plant where tank transmissions are being manufactured. Here the CIOers refused to work just because certain parts which they were assembling were turned out by AFL workers in a subsidiary plant.

Another example of this costly private war is reported in connection with a recent bid on the construction of 300 houses for the government. One Detroit firm planned on pre-fabricating the homes—doing much of the construction on efficient factory assembly lines, and on this basis turned in a bid that was some $400,000 less than the nearest competitor. However, the government has not yet accepted this bid because of possible repercussions in the labor camps—it seems that the pre-fabricated homes would be built by CIO factory workers which would be an invasion of the monopoly in the building trades enjoyed by the AFL. Thus efficient methods are discouraged and taxpayers' dollars are squandered in an effort to pamper the politically powerful labor leaders.

While congress and the administration look the other way, it seems that it is high time that the public make its influence felt by demanding action in such situations. America's stand must be backed by production and not empty words.
