By SCHOOL PUPILS

Lincoln patrol members were chosen last week. The following were elected: Louise Schilling, Billy Montgomery, Lorraine Lorie, Billy Dean, Walter, Maxine Riley, Carma Henson, James Rose, Ruben Smith, Warner Krinock, Maxine Winters, Ann Fullerton, Barbara Shere, Richard Adams, Frank Hile, Betty Rynken, Alison Vestal, Joyce DeVore, Allen Speece, Frank Morris, Colleen Krinock, Lois Kathan and Eddie Allen.

Carmela Daly is a new pupil in room eight. She is in the sixth grade. The class is glad to have her. She came from Washington school.

The fourth grade received four new pupils this week. Donald Daly, Gene Daly and Betty Wells came from the Washington school and Jeff Alkerie came from the Bellview school.

Orchestra has started at the Lincoln school. The children are glad to begin their playing. The pupils in the orchestra from the

Junior Hi 11 Downs Grants Pass 19-6

Working behind a hard-charging Ashland junior high school line, Clarence "Mark" Marquess scored three touchdowns to defeat the Grants Pass Frosh 19 to 6 on the local turf Thursday night. He scored in the first, second and fourth quarters.

Little Jamie Moseley, playing quarterback, ran "rings" around the Frosh right end and piled up most of Ashland's yardage.

Grants Pass' lone tally came late in the game when a backfield man named Brown fumbled. The ball rolled across Ashland's goal and was fallen on by the ball-carrier's brother.

The win puts Al Simpson's club in a tie for first place with Medford in the southern Oregon junior high conference.

WHO DO CLASS MEETS

The Who Do class of the Methodist church will have a party this afternoon (Friday) at 2 o'clock at the home of Mrs. L. R. Coder, 308 Oberlin street.

fifth grade are John Payne, Mary Jane Coleman and Jeannine Presley.

Juanita Kuykendall from room six moved to Klamath Falls Oct. 18. She was a nice girl and everyone liked her.

Grade five challenged grade four in a game of football Oct. 21. The referee was Carl Surber. Grade five beat 12 to 0.

Room seven has with the help of Mr. Wilda been decorating their library. Each one in the room has had a part in making the room look nice.

On Tuesday, Oct. 21, the fourth grade made their second trip to the city library to get new books. Most boys and girls brought back two or three books.

NEWS FROM

Washington School

By SCHOOL PUPILS

We have 20 pupils in room three. For two weeks there have been only 19 pupils as Gary Guill still has the mumps.

Dickie Wallace is the fastest runner in our room. Norma Davis is the second fastest runner.

The third grade is studying about Indians. We are reading "Red Feather." We are drawing some pictures of Indians. Friday we made some Indian teepees. The third grade boys and girls are working together on a big picture of an Indian village.

Carmela Day has transferred from room seven to the Lincoln school. Her many friends will miss her.

Room seven made masks for Hallowe'en. Some were full-face masks and some were half-masks. Richard Osterman brought some cheese cloth to cover them.

HINDSIGHT ON SPORTS

By I TOLD YOU SO

The Medford Tigers, under Coach Bill Bowerman's T-formation, is the scoring leader among unbeaten Oregon high school gridiron teams and the favorite for the Oregon high school mythical state championship, according to an Associated Press story.

The Tigers have amassed a total of 130 points in four games, an average of 32.5 a game. They have had 34 points scored against them. Hood River is next in line with 136 points in five games, an average of 27.2, and Myrtle Point, also using the T-formation, has a total of 97 points for an average of 24.2.

The Dalles is next with 83 points in four games, an average of 20.7. Milton-Freewater has a total of 101 in five games, an average of 20.2.

The Dalles leads defensive play, having but one touchdown scored against them for an average of 1.7. Hood River has allowed 28 for an average of 5.6; Milton-Freewater 40 for an average of 8; Medford's 34 averages 8.5, and Myrtle Point 44, an average of 11.

Vernonia, undefeated and unscored upon, beats the record of the larger schools. They have gathered a total of 147 points for an average of 36.7.

Grid guesses this week: Washington over Stanford. Oregon State over Washington State.

Oregon over UCLA. Idaho over Willamette. USC over California. Santa Clara over Oklahoma. Gonzaga over Portland. Medford over Bend. Klamath Falls over Eureka. Ashland over Dunsuir.

Room seven has been making window and door transparencies. They were very nice.

Room five had a very nice surprise Monday. Sidney Pickell brought a toy airport to school. We are going to make an airport.

Betty Wells, Gene and Don Daly of room five moved last week. They are going to Lincoln school now. We miss them.

Obera Leonard, Bonnie Frohreich, Tommy Uppington, Lannis McLaren, Donald Damon and Walker Grubb played their violins Friday for the Carrot club members. Bobby Simpson played an Indian song on the piano for us.

Dale Dieckman brought us two Indian pictures in room four. They are "The Appeal to the Great Spirit" and "The Trails End." We think they are very nice.
