Washington School Schedule Announced

By SCHOOL PUPILS
Room 4 is making very interesting Thanksgiving booklets. We write stories which tell about the Pilgrims coming to this country. First from England to Holland, then to America. They named the place where they landed in America "Plymouth Rock." They came in 1620. We make pictures also, which describe the stories we write.

We are reading many interesting books. Some are "The Indians in Winter Camp," "Little Eagle" and "Ta-Ke the Boy from Nowhere."
Delmar Kampmann's mother bought us each a cup cake for our Halloween party. She had painted faces on the top of them with good frosting. The cakes were so good! Mrs. Kampmann also brot us candy for our party. We thank her very much for remembering us.

The Washington school will hold Open House on the evening of Nov. 13 at 7:30. Classes will be held for the benefit of the visiting parents and friends. Anyone interested will be most welcome. Classes in music and art will be held in addition to the regular

We have just received the first copies of the "Washington Flashers." It includes sports, jokes, birthdays in November, poems, riddles and clubs. We think they are very interesting. Why don't you buy one?

The patrol boys of the Safety Council have their new yellow hats and belts and white raincoats.

The two six-man football teams are going to play on the turf field again this week. We are very anxious and excited. The "A" team is captained by Ed Beare and the "B" team by Robert Fowler.

Mr. Smith has been taking pictures of the football teams and players.
Bob Osterman is out of school with poison oak.

The children of the Washington school think the copy of Washington School Flashers was very good and that the staff did a fine job on their first paper.

The second grade is reading a new book "Round About." We have work books to go with our readers. We enjoying working in them.

The third grade has a new reader, "If I Were Going." We have a work book to go with the reader.
Miss Mitchell has read us "Pinocchio." We would not like to be Pinocchio. He is always getting into trouble, but sometimes we are just like him!

Grizzlies Stop Yreka In 7-6 Thriller

The Ashland high football machine had a narrow squeak but managed to keep their undefeated record for games played on the new Walter Phillips field intact Friday night with a 7-6 win over the previously undefeated Yreka Miners.

The Yrekans presented a powerful and fast-charging line and a lot of fancy backs but the superior plugging of the Grizzlies gave them the victory. The Californians scored in the second period on a short plunge through the line and it wasn't until late in the third quarter that Charley Jandreau wiggled his way through the Yreka secondary to cross into pay dirt standing up. He scored the extra point in the same manner.

Klamath Falls Pelicans finished their southern Oregon conference games with a 27 to 6 routing of Grants Pass and Medford trounced Eureka 26 to 7 in a king's-x game.

YOUTH ENJOY PARTY
Christ's Ambassadors, young people's group of the Full Gospel temple, enjoyed a progressive supper and party last Saturday evening. The final part of the supper was served at the home of Rev. and Mrs. L. P. Furman where the group spent the remainder of the evening enjoying Hallowe'en games.

● Mr. and Mrs. Philip Wendt spent last week on the coast and in the northern part of the state.

NEWS FROM

Lincoln School

By SCHOOL PUPILS

Miss Depew's Visit
Miss Depew came to visit room 5 of Lincoln school Nov. 4. She told them about the alphabet and how it was developed from picture writing. Miss Depew showed them on the board that A was an ox, B a house, C a camel, D a tent, E a window, F a hook, H a fence, I and J were fish, K a hand, L a whip, M waves, N a fish, O an eye, P a mouth, Q a knot, R a head, S was teeth and T was a cross.

The boys and girls in room 1 have finished building their playhouse. It has a chimney, a good roof, two windows and a little porch. The boys and girls have used it for a school house, church and a playhouse. Everyone helped build it. Some of the boys made little benches to put inside the house.

Marine Garden
Miss Stephens brought a marine garden to room 5. She brought it Tuesday, Nov. 14. The colors in it are purple, green, yellow, violet, orange and white. It looks like a castle and is very pretty.

A Trip to the Library
Room 5 took a trip to the library. The children's librarian, Miss Mason, showed them many interesting new books. She told them a little about each book.

Some of the books were about dogs, airplanes, negroes and other interesting things. The boys and girls enjoyed the trip and hope to get some of the books later.

The pupils of room 8 of Lincoln school had an experiment of filtering water. They got some dirty water and filled a lamp chimney with sand and gravel. They put the dirty water into the lamp chimney. The water went through the sand and gravel and when it came out it was cleaner than when it was poured in. This proves that sand and gravel clean water.

The sixth grade had a Hallowe'en party at 2:30 p. m. Oct. 31. The game committee was Curtis Vail, Eugene Ritzinger and Joe Bayne; refreshment committee, Juanita Schultz, Dorothy Elhart and Arlene Gregory, and the decoration committee was Maryen Roberts, Louise Schilling, Ione Hile, Carol Cahill and Virginia Lutz. The room was decorated with pictures of witches, bats, coal black cats, and pumpkins. Truth or consequences was played until refreshments were served. All had a good time. There was a clean-up committee of volunteers who cleaned up after the party, taking down pictures, cleaning boards and sweeping the floor.

Room 8 went to the public library Oct. 28 to have a lesson on using the catalog. Miss Mason taught them many things about the books and the library. They found books listed under name and author cards and learned how to find books for themselves. It was very helpful and they enjoyed it.

Mr. Martin spoke to the children of Lincoln school about the blackout. He told them what to do and about the ladies who would be in every block to help out if needed.

Room 7 had a Hallowe'en party Friday morning. The room had a fine time playing games. They served popcorn and apples. Marietta Ball brought candy for the children.

The children in room 5 of Lincoln school went to the library for a lesson. Miss Cora Mason, librarian, showed them how to look up books by the card catalog by the number on the shelf and by the author's name.

HINDSIGHT ON SPORTS

By I TOLD YOU SO

Even if the Ashland Grizzlies should happen to lose their game with Astoria there Nov. 14, they will have the distinction of making the longest trip of any high school in Oregon as far as this department knows. True Grant high of Portland came all the way to Klamath Falls to lose 7-6 to the Pelicans and Medford travels to The Dalles on Nov. 29 in a game that probably will decide the mythical state championship. But the Grizzlies' jaunt to Astoria is considerably farther than Grant high traveled and beats the Medford trip by about three miles, according to our map.

The trip gives the local gridsters something to work for in the closing part of the season and gives them a chance to get out of their old stamping grounds and take on some fast stepping competition; not that the Medford fracas tonight won't be with fast enough company. If they should get over Astoria they will have to be reckoned by upstate teams and papers.

It also will be a chance for an Ashland athletic team to "make" an upstate paper by more than the few lines that says "so-and-so beat somebody else."

At any rate, the signing of the Fishermen is a definite break for the Grizzlies, win or lose.

Oregon and UCLA let us down last week-end and spoiled an otherwise perfect record. To date 67 games have been picked with 46 winners and 21 losers.

This week's selections: Washington over California, Washington State over Idaho, Oregon State over UCLA, Santa Clara over Oregon, Texas over Baylor, Northwestern over Baylor, Minnesota over Nebraska, Fordham over Pitt and Medford over Ashland.

● Mrs. Cora Fleener of Paulsbo, Wash. and daughter, Miss Audrey Dodge of Port Orchard, Wash. are guests at the A. R. Kincaid home.
● Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Snider are in Los Angeles this week on business.
