Produce Shipments Show Increase

Carlots shipments of fruit and vegetables from Oregon showed an increase of 136 cars in October over September, according to the plant division of the state department of agriculture. October shipments totaled 2,278 cars and 1,183 trucklots. In September the carlot movement was 2,142 and trucklots 431.

Potatoes accounted for the largest movement, with 999 cars and 701 trucks inspected and certified last month. Pears were second, with 500.5 cars and 25 trucks, and third was onions with 312 cars. Apples, with 186.5 cars and 20 truckloads, ranked fourth. Shipments of other commodities were under 150 cars.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Brown and children of Hill spent Thanksgiving day with Bill Brown.

Winter Comes!

Accidents multiply as road conditions make driving risks more numerous.

Cold weather requires more fire—and where there is fire, there is always the danger of it becoming master.

MEDFORD IN BIG GAME TONIGHT

The Medford high school football team, 25 strong, will face The Dalles Indians at The Dalles tonight in a game that is billed as the mythical state championship.

The Dalles has been undefeated, rolling up top-sided scores against all opponents except Mac-Hi, whom they defeated 7-6. Medford had an otherwise perfect season spoiled by the Ashland Grizzlies.

The game, expected to be one of the most thrilling of the current prep season, will be broadcast over KMED, beginning about 8 o'clock tonight.

Regardless of who wins tonight's game, Myrtle Point will have at least a tie claim for the mythical title. They, besides The Dalles, are the only major undefeated team in the state.

If Medford should win, Myrtle Point can claim the title on the strength of its undefeated record, just can't erase that Ashland defeat. On the other hand, if The Dalles should end up on the long end of the score, Myrtle Point can claim a tie for the title. The Pointers already have asked The Dalles for a game but officials said they weren't interested until they finish their regular season. Tonight ends that season.
