NEWS FROM

Lincoln School
By SCHOOL PUPILS

The pupils of Room 8 have new student teachers, Miss Wall, Miss Leonard and Miss Kerns teach in the morning; Mr. Hyde and Mrs. Burleson teach in the afternoon.

The pupils of the fifth and sixth grades heard President Roosevelt speak over the radio. He said that the United States would make 60,000 airplanes in 1942. He also told many facts about preparations for war. The children enjoyed the program very much.

Miss Letha Coulter, Miss Doreen DeLisle and Mr. F. Cyril Sander are the new student teachers for the fourth grade. Miss Coulter and Miss DeLisle teach in the morning, Mr. Sander in the afternoon.

The children in Room 3 saw a moving picture about winter sports. It was called "Winter Wonderland," and we all enjoyed it. We are studying about the seasons.

Dale O'Leary has come back to Room 3 from a Medford school. We are all glad to have him back again.

Room 6 challenged Room 7 to a game of soccer on Jan. 6. The score was 2-2. It was a very good game although it was played on a muddy field.

The boys and girls of Room 6 have four new student teachers. Their names are Mrs. Taylor, Miss Freeman, Miss Lee and Mr. Bennett. The children hope they like Lincoln school.
