To the Editor:
Sahnt Patrick is credited with having driven the snakes out of Ireland. Would that the good old Saint were in the flesh to render a meritorious service—to "shoo" the chisellers, racketeers and profiteers from our nation's capital! Seat you scalawags.

Here's a story going the rounds of official Washington: When Gen. Douglas McArthur heard that unidentified commercial planes piloted by Axis agents had flown over California, he cabled the war department in Washington: "If you can hold the west coast for a month, I'll send you reinforcements." The story may lack authenticity.

We are told that the planned field and track meet at Phillips field is off, because the WPA workers haven't completed the project. Why wait? As soon as weather permits the school authorities should declare a holiday and let the student body tackle the job.

Congressional Candidate Visits

George A. Simon of Eugene spent several days the past week in the southern part of the new fourth congressional district in the interest of his candidacy for representative in congress. On a previous visit to this section, Simon found little interest in politics but received enough encouragement along the line to cause him to decide to "toss his fedora" into the ring.

The candidate stands on his record as a business man and physician. He has been a resident of Eugene for 22 years, served on the city council there eight years, has extensive business interests and enjoys a large practice in his chosen profession. Prior to settling in Eugene he ran a large wheat ranch in Sherman county.

Dr. Simon says he is not making campaign pledges, other than that if elected he will make it a point to be guided by good business sense rather than by political necessity in handling the affairs of the district and governmental matters.
