

About People You Know

● Larry Plagman completed his year of apprenticeship at the Broadway drug store June 10 and left for Albany to visit his parents a few days. He has accepted a position as pharmacist in the Waggoner drug store in Klamath Falls and will start June 15. During his stay here Larry has made many friends who wish him well in his new location and express regret that he is to leave Ashland.

● Mr. and Mrs. Tom Brattain and small son of Paisley were weekend guests at the S. B. McNair home. Mrs. Brattain will be remembered by many Ashland people as Ruth Sperling. After graduating from Southern Oregon College of Education she taught in Lake county where she met her future husband, rancher of the Paisley district.

● Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Huffman report the birth of a six-pound seven-ounce boy to Sgt. and Mrs. Bill Huffman of Olympia, Wash. Both Sergeant and Mrs. Huffman are former Ashland residents, having attended high school here. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Huffman and his wife is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Holman.

● Mr. and Mrs. Gary Newton had as weekend guests Mr. and Mrs. Skeet O'Connell and daughter Sharon. The O'Connells, former Ashland residents when Skeet was in charge of athletics at the high school, now reside at Yuba City, Calif., and were enroute to Corvallis for a visit with relatives.

● Mrs. F. S. Engle is in Portland this week visiting Mrs. Hattie Hayes and family. She planned to attend the graduation exercises at Oregon Medical college where Earl Canfield, alumnus of Ashland high school, is a member of the graduating class.

● Mrs. Fred Cushing and daughter, Shirley left Wednesday evening for San Diego where they expect to remain several months. Shirley, a member of the class of 1936, Ashland high school, expects to enter Southern Oregon College of Education for the fall term.

● Mrs. Anne Sprague of Lakeview is among those registering for summer school work at Southern Oregon College of Education. Mrs. Sprague, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cad Ellis of Ashland, is county superintendent of schools for Lake county.

● Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Art Haskins on Beach street this week are Mr. and Mrs. E. Nielson, Mrs. Beasie Gamman and daughter Barbara, Mrs. Paul Orisko and daughter and Miss Ardille Dickinson from Reno, Nev.

● Miss Janet Baxter, former student of Education and for the past year a student at Oregon State college at Corvallis, spent Saturday night here with friends, returning to Corvallis Sunday.

● Mrs. Elva Jones has returned from Alameda, Calif., where she spent several weeks visiting her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Buster Newhouse. On the way home she visited another daughter at Redding.

● Miss Carol Vandewater returned to her home in Klamath Falls Saturday after spending two weeks at the home of Mr. and Mrs. I. F. Andres. Mr. and Mrs. Andres, accompanied by Donald Huffman, took the guest home.

● Peggy Whittle, member of the class of 1942, Ashland high school, has accepted a position for the summer as assistant to Mrs. Dwight Patterson, acting secretary of the Ashland chamber of commerce.

● Enroute home from a visit in Oakland, Calif., Dr. and Mrs. R. A. Walker of Seattle stopped to visit their former pastor, Rev. James H. Edgar.

● Mr. and Mrs. John Broady and son Bobby drove to Salem Thursday taking Mrs. Broady's mother, Mrs. W. E. White to her home. Mrs. White has been here for six weeks.

● Mr. and Mrs. Cad Ellis and two children of Seattle are guests at the home of Mr. Ellis's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cad Ellis, 922 Siskiyou boulevard.

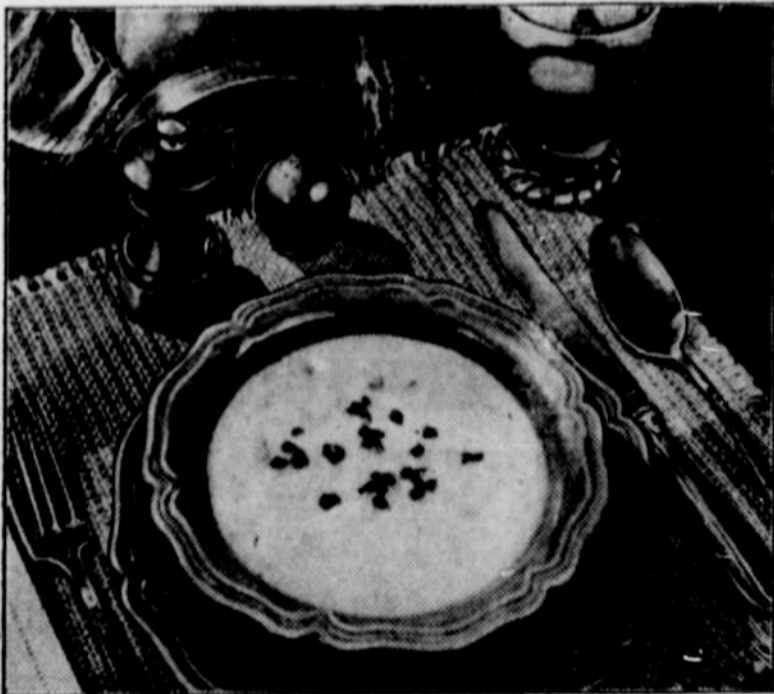

● Visitors in Ashland Wednesday were Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Gran of Hill and Mrs. Gran's brother, Robert A. Roby, soldier stationed at Fort Lewis, Wash.

● Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Heer of South San Francisco are visiting Mr. Heer's mother, Mrs. Bertha Heer of High street.

● Miss Louise Woodruff visited in Prineville and Klamath Falls last week. She has brothers in both towns.

A fine appetizing start to a meal is a Good Nourishing Soup

says Dorothy Greig

Cream of Corn and Mushroom Soup is a rich and satisfying soup to eat before a hungry family.

THERE are several ways of using soup as part of a meal. You can offer a thin piquant soup, such as a consommé, to waken appetite. That type of soup is a good beginning to a formal dinner or luncheon.

The soups that most of us really like best though, are those with heft and substance. We enjoy eating them, and they are both comforting and satisfying to the inner man. Since such a soup is highly nourishing we can serve it as the main dish for a light lunch or supper or as a hearty first course for dinner.

These days there is an almost unbelievable number of delicious soups for our enjoyment. Just look at the variety on your grocer's shelves. Then, too, we can take those fine canned soups and by combining two or more of them together achieve new and altogether individual flavors.

Or we can use a canned soup as a base and add outside ingredients to it. For instance—

Cream of Corn and Mushroom Soup
 2 tablespoons butter
 3/4 cup shoepeg corn with liquor
 1 can condensed cream of mushroom soup
 1 can water, using soup can for measure
 2 tablespoons chopped pimiento
 Melt the butter in a saucepan, add the corn with liquor and sauté in butter 5-8 minutes. Add the cream of mushroom soup and stir well until corn is thoroughly mixed with the soup. Then add water. Heat, but do not boil. Add chopped pimiento for garnish. Serves 3-4.

As for combining two or more soups, here are a few suggestions. You will find these delicious—especially on a chill day when appetites are keen and demanding:

Pepper Pot Potage
 1 can condensed pea soup
 1 can condensed tomato soup
 1 can condensed pepper pot soup
 2 cans milk, using soup can for measure
 Combine the pea, tomato and pepper pot soups. Then add 2 cans of milk, using soup can for a measure. Heat, but do not boil. Serves 6-8.

Clam Chowder Bisque
 1 can condensed clam chowder
 1 can condensed chicken gumbo soup
 1 can light cream (using soup can for measure)
 Mix the chicken gumbo and clam chowder. Then add the light cream. Heat, but do not boil. Serves 4-5.

Pea-with-Bean Soup
 1 can condensed bean-with-bacon soup
 1 can condensed pea soup
 1 can water
 1 can milk
 1 frankfurter, sliced
 Combine the bean-with-bacon soup and the pea soup. Stir in the water gradually and then add the can of milk (using soup can for a measure). Heat to the boiling point, but do not boil. Sauté the frankfurter slices in a little butter and use as garnish. Serves 5-7.
