What You Buy With WAR BONDS

Hitler found out that his high powered mechanized and motorized army bogged down in the snow and mud of the Russian Winter. Although our Army is largely mechanized the cavalry horse is still a highly essential factor in this mounted division and in the Field Artillery. The Army also maintains remount farms where many cavalry horses are bred and raised.

These select horses cost from $100 to $165 and our crack cavalrymen are expert riders and carry on the traditions which have followed the cavalry from the earliest days of the Army. Purchase of War Savings Bonds will insure good mounts for the Cavalry. You and your neighbors regularly every pay day can help buy these horses for the U. S. Cavalry. Invest at least 10 percent of your income in War Bonds.

The labors of the writing man are always underestimated. There is more to it than the mere business of typing. Occasionally one must pause to think, and to a man who has been a journalist for twenty years thinking becomes increasingly difficult.

SIX INCH SERMON

BY R. H. HARPER

Abram: A Pioneer in Faith.
Lesson for August 2: Genesis 12:1-9;
Hebrews 11:8-12.
Golden Text: Genesis 15:1.

While others who have preceded him had exhibited great faith, the abiding faith of Abram was such that he may be fittingly called a pioneer in his ability to see the unseen.

Native of one of the oldest cities of the world, Ur of the Chaldees, Abram had journeyed northward with his father to Haran where he received his call to go into a strange country "which he should after receive for an inheritance." The call had its promise of large blessing—he would become the father of a great nation. We may look back now, after the lapse of several thousand years, and see the record of fulfillment of God's promise in the history of the Hebrews; Abram's faith was great indeed because he could see through his faith what now we read.

In Canaan God appeared again unto Abram and gave him assurance of the fulfillment of the promise made to him in Haran. And when we act upon our faith, renewed assurance comes to us of fulfillment in God's own time.

In the 11th chapter of Hebrews which has been called the picture gallery of the saints, the whole of Abram's career is ascribed to his faith, and it is said that through it all he looked beyond the things of time to eternal things—"for the city which hath foundations, whose builder and maker is God."

Let us follow the leadings of faith in our own time and place, knowing that we can safely trust God's promises of wellbeing and happiness.
