HOUSE AND HOME

by Mary E. Dague

By MARY E. DAGUE
Author of Sister Mary's Kitchen.

As we live and acquire we seem to need more and more storage space, and certain it is, we can't put things away if we don't have a place to put 'em.

Often in an old house an arched niche can be let into a wall, making open shelves just deep enough for small books and "objets d'art."

A larger and deeper cupboard can be made by cutting between the studs of the wall. The opening should be the right size to take the completely assembled cupboard with its outside edges flush with the wall. If necessary a light frame molding or some covering strip can be used to hide the jagged break in the plaster.

Then of course you can always add the hanging and standing cupboards to a room without the benefit of a carpenter.

In a dining room a corner cupboard usually is divided in two sections; the upper part having glass doors and the lower, paneled ones. Frequently, drawers are set between the upper and lower sections. Occasionally the upper section is left entirely open with an interesting scrolled facing around the shelves.

If a corner cupboard is put in a bedroom for the storage of clothes it's obvious that the doors should be of solid wood panels. Choose a corner cupboard in a bedroom only as a last resort because they are not "roomy."

The success of the cupboard will depend largely upon its finish. The room and its furnishings will govern the style as well as the color of the shelves and linings. You can build one and paint it the color of the woodwork or you can buy one to match the furniture.

When it comes to closets, be sure to have a light put in every one.

The height of the hooks is important, too. There should be a few in your own closet high enough to hang your long dresses and wraps.

In the downstairs hall closet and in the children's own, the hooks must be low enough for them to reach. A shelf for hats should be put up for children as well as one for the grown-up members of the family. A shoe rack fastened on the closet side of the door will keep rubbers and galoshes off the floor.

If the closet is large enough to accommodate a set of low shelves, provide one for each child.

Add "tags and labels" to your shopping list for your next trip to town. Then when you begin to put summer things away for the winter you'll be armed with the wherewithal for marking boxes so you'll know what's in them without opening them.

ASHLAND USO—

Donna at the Paris Opera House, and whose father was the first American baritone to sing there. Altho the father's name was "Labenburger", he was given the registered theatrical name of "Monco", under which his son, now writes and fights. The poem, entitled "Hitler Will Pay"—we present now to our readers:

HITLER WILL PAY
By Corporal L. J. Monico
The years have rolled by now since Kaiser Bill;
Fled eGermany and went over the hill.
He didn't realize when he lost the Rhine;
That Germany would get it back some time.
Ah! Yes another man took his place;
He thinks he'll change the Universe.
Hitler's his name and he's a Dictator;
Now Austria Hungary he took Command;
And Czechoslovakia lost their land;
He is not satisfied with all that;
For he wants more land as a matter of fact.
His word is the Law way over there;
As he raises his hand high in the air
They cheer him at every beck and call;
For if they don't their heads will fall.
He's getting everything that he can;
So he'll have his men ready at his Command.
He is biting off more now than he can chew;
And he better make Peace with every Jew.
The time is coming, don't forget;
And he is the one that will regret.
For God's people are the Jewish Race;
And Hitler will pay for his disgrace.
Staf Sgt. Joseph Czupryna, is one of many soldiers who appreciates to the fullest degree, the hospitality shown them by the people of Ashland. He sent in a "Thank You" note, which was received by Information Hostess, Mrs. Myrtle Mayberry, to express his sincere appreciation to Dr. and Mrs. C. Clyde Dunham who were his hosts over the week-end.

The U.S.O. wishes to take this opportunity to thank those who have sent in fruit juices, fruits, melons, and cookies, which help in a big way to make our Ashland U.S.O. program a success.

SIX INCH SERMON

K.V. ROBERT H. HARPER

Faith in Christ as Our Personal Saviour.

Lesson for October 4: Acts 16:13-15. Romans 5:1-11.

Golden Text: Romans 5:1.

Leaving Genesis for Studies is the Christian Life (Personal, Family, Church), we begin with the supreme topic, given above.

The story of Lydia shows the faith is the gift of God. He opens her heart. And God works upon men's hearts in varied ways. It is our duty to preach the word; God gives the increase.

Paul writes concerning justification by faith. Justification means pardon. Through faith man is forgiven and made right before God. In its widest significance, justification includes regeneration. The heart is also changed through faith and with pure motives and God's help a redeemed man is able to live the good life.

Faith, then, is followed by changed living. The believer may even rejoice in tribulation—rather in the victory he wins over it. In many ways men achieve by overcoming difficulties. Setting a propeller in motion, they use the opposition of the air to conquer the air. So may we overcome by the very obstacles that meet us in the Christian life.

The state of the redeemed is reconciliation with God. Formerly estranged from him by sin, they are restored to God's favor and consecrated to his will.

This state is made possible by Christ's sacrifice. If that sacrifice avails for us, we must sacrifice our lives to Christ—to be used in his service. "Freely we have received," let us freely give to him in giving to other men.

"UNDER THE CHRISTIAN BANNER" is the theme of the Rally Day program at the Church of Christ Sunday morning. The emphasis of the program is Christian citizenship. The children and young people of the Bible School will be featured in song, exercises, and pageant.

The program will begin at 9:45. The school has set as its attendance goal 201. Mrs. Mildred Haynie is chairman of the program committee. Mrs. John Schoenwald is superintendent of the school, and Earl F. Downing, minister of the church. A special invitation is given to all who are not attending any Sunday school to come. An offering will be taken to assist The Gideons in placing 5000 New Testaments with Psalms in Camp White.

Word has been received that Jack Williams, who left recently to enter training at Little Rock, Arkansas, is confined to the hospital with illness.

Health Hints

(By Dr. C. C. Dunham)

I have been asked by the editor of this paper to write this column. I will endeavor to give horse sense information upon general health subjects.

Relaxed healthful sleep is one of the very essentials of a happy healthful life. A good many years ago some one said that one hour of good sleep before midnight was worth two after. I believe that truth is more correct than people think.

A good set of springs and a good mattress are an investment that will pay for themselves in good health. With the above mentioned articles a person can lay down, stretch out and relax all the muscles of the body and prepare to sleep. When the body is relaxed healthful and refreshing sleep comes and gives the body a chance to repair itself from the day's turmoil.

Vitamin C is found in many of the acid fruits and is very essential to body well-being. Be sure to take an eight-ounce glass of fruit juice every day.

Your SUNDAY DINNER

Surround Turnip With Lima Bean Ring

This highly nutritious meal boasts color and appetite appeal a-plenty. The Lima Bean Ring is filled with diced and buttered yellow turnip. A molded lime gelatin salad gives contrast in taste textures. Cherry Bavarian cream brings another touch of spring to your table as the finale for this meal.

- The Dinner
Lima Bean Ring (or Roast Veal With Pan Browned Potatoes)
Buttered Mashed Rutabaga
Lime Molded Vegetable Salad
Cherry Bavarian Cream
Beverage
- *Recipes Included
This menu is properly balanced for nutritional value. It supplies: Lima Bean Ring Mold: Vitamins A, B, B-1 and G, Carbohydrates, Proteins, Minerals as calcium, potassium, iron and alkaline.
Rutabaga: Vitamins A, B, C, Protein, Minerals as above.
Molded Vegetable Salad: Minerals, Vitamins A, B, C, and G; Carbohydrates, Fats, Proteins in mayonnaise.
Dessert: Vitamins A, B, C; Carbohydrates, Fats and Minerals.

- To Serve 6 You Need:
1 1/2 pounds dried lima beans
1 jar peanut butter
1 package lime gelatin
1 stalk celery
1 head lettuce
1 bunch carrots
1 medium head rutabaga
1 No. 2 can red cherries
1/2 pint whipping cream
(Balance of materials among staple supplies.)
- *Lima Bean Ring.
2 cups lima beans
1 cup dry bread crumbs
4 tablespoons peanut butter
1/2 teaspoon pepper
1 tablespoon poultry seasoning
2 tablespoons grated onion
1 tablespoon bacon fat
1 cup milk

Wash and soak the beans overnight, then cook in boiling water until soft (about 45 minutes). Drain, cool and chop coarsely, reserving a few for the very top of the ring. Add crumbs, mixed with peanut butter and seasoning, then fat, and milk enough to moisten. Put into a greased ring mold after first scattering the whole lima beans in the bottom of the mold. Bake in a 350-degree oven for 30 minutes. Serve with tomato sauce.

Lime Vegetable Salad.
Add 2 cups mixed vegetables (celery, peas, carrots, or cabbage) which have been chopped or shredded to 1 package lime gelatin prepared according to directions on the package. Pour into individual molds and chill until firm. Serve with creamy mayonnaise.

*Cherry Bavarian Cream
1 tablespoon plain gelatin
1/2 cup cold water
2 cups pitted red cherries
1/2 cup sugar
1 tablespoon lemon juice
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 cup whipping cream

Soak the gelatin in the cold water for a few minutes. Liquefy the softened gelatin over boiling water; add some of the cherry juice and stir until dissolved. Then combine the rest of the cherries and juice and stir until dissolved. Chill the mixture and when beginning to thicken, fold in the cream which has been whipped. Rinse a large mold or individual molds, as preferred in cold water, and fill with the cream mixture.
