Church Leaders in Favor of Increasing Pay for Legislators

High church dignitaries have joined with civic organizations, woman's clubs, service clubs, union labor and prominent citizens throughout the state in endorsing the referendum amendment to the constitution providing for an increase in the pay of legislators which is to be voted on November 3. This amendment would replace the constitutional provision which for 83 years has held the pay of legislators at $3 a day for a 40-day session and authorize the payment of $8 for a session of 50 days.

Since it has not for years been possible for the legislature to complete its labors in 40 days the result has been that members served for a varying average of $1.83 to $1.94 a day, while their actual living cost at Salem has been several times that amount.

Latest to endorse the amendment is Archbishop Edward D. Howard, who has issued the following statement:

"It is politically unwise and economically unsound to limit the pay of legislators to a total which is insufficient to pay their actual living expenses while attending a session of the law-making body.

"The present limitation in pay makes it impossible for a man or woman to serve the state in a law-making capacity unless possessed of independent means and denies the public of services which might be of inestimable value. Besides, it is unfair to perform a public duty without compensating him for that sacrifice. This the present law does not permit.

"Three dollars a day for a session that inevitably extends many days beyond the period for which pay is permissible is not compensation in any true sense of the word. Proper regard for their own interests and for the future welfare of the state should induce voters to support this constitutional amendment."

Dancing Enjoyed at Service Club, Oct. 8

The enlisted men at Camp White, Oregon enjoyed another gala dancing party at Service Club Number Two on Thursday night, October 8th, sponsored by an Engineers unit at the Camp.

Arrangements for special entertainment and hostesses for the dance were under the direction of Miss Rena Semenza, Senior Director, and Miss Joyce Holt, Junior Director of Service Club Number Two.

Special entertainment at intermission consisted of a specialty tap routine by Pvt. Alex Colie Brusco, formerly of Earl Carroll's in Hollywood, highlighted by a military tap; the singing and pantomime of Pvt. Don Safford, whose entertaining services are much in demand; a group of musical numbers by a novelty quartet consisting of concertina, guitar, accordion and harmonica, under the direction of Sgt. Rizzo; and some enjoyable community singing.

It is planned to hold a series of dances every Thursday evening provided enough young ladies can be secured to attend.

Sorry to announce that Cay Huffman is slightly indisposed. We hope to see her out soon.

RALPH BELLAMY has an unusual romantic role opposite Irene Dunne in "Lady in a Jam". Patric Knowles, Eugene Pallette and others are in the cast of the comedy production, produced and directed by Gregory La Cava.

HERE FOR FEW DAYS—

W. E. Beers, editor of Lakeview Examiner at Lakeview, Oregon, is spending a few days here visiting his two granddaughters, Mrs. Kelly Parsons and Mrs. June Feigh. After his stay of a few days he will go on to Arcadia, California where he will pay a short visit with his son E. W. Beers. Mr. Beers came in to say "How-do-you-do," he paid us a pretty compliment—saying The Miner office was a very neat and clean office. If you know what we mean. As a rule, in good many weekly shops, the editors' desks are piled high with papers, etc. He has quite a time keeping tab on his sizzers when he wants to write an editorial, not saying anything about the back office, which is pretty much like the front office, is cluttered up with paper and linotype metal all over the floor. Mr. Beers publishes an 8 page paper, each of 8 columns and chuck a block with advertising and maintains a very attractive and up-to-date place.

WE'RE talking facts, remember! Such as the fact that steel for every tank, ship, and gun must be made of 50% scrap. And the terrible fact that America's mills are starving for this scrap—without enough on hand for even 30 days more production!

Which puts it up to you!

Monday starts the big scrap metal drive. And you, as a businessman, have a double job to do. Clean out your home—and scour your place of business, factory, office or store . . . for every single bit of scrap.

And when you see the stockpile grow—for the mills to take when it's needed — be glad that you've done your part...that your work may have saved some boy from a needless death!

Wings of Victory

Electricity helps make America's war planes some of the world's most deadly weapons. Here are a few of the ways in which G-E equipment serves in the air.

- Lamps are the eyes of the plane at night, ranging in size from cockpit lamps no larger than a pea to landing lamps of more than half-a-million candlepower.
- Radio combines the voice and the ears of the plane, allowing communication between the pilot and his squadron, and the ground and sea forces.
- Instruments are the sensitive brain that relays messages to the pilot from all parts of the ship and helps him to control the plane in its flight.
- Superchargers are the lungs of the plane, pumping extra oxygen to the carburetors, giving our planes the altitude so necessary to modern warfare.
