Chinese Can Give U.S. Meat Stretching Ideas

America might well profit by inviting some native Chinese food specialists to come to this country to teach methods of making a little meat go a long way in the diet and of preparing highly palatable meat substitutes, believes Dean Ava B. Milam of Oregon State college, who is chairman of the state nutrition committee for defense

Dean Milam, who spent several years in China, says that the Chinese have long used soy beans as an excellent meat substitute and have developed many palatable soy bean dishes. It is also common in China, she says, to see a man carry home a single pork chop which will be skillfully used to flavor an otherwise vegetable meal.

Plans Made To Enroll More Young Men for War

Determined to break the all time enlistment record established following the attack on Pearl Harbor, armyrecruiting representatives throughout the state have set out on an intensive program aimed at young Americans whom they believe are more anxious now than ever before to get in and win the fight.

With the cooperation of local fraternal organizations it is hoped to familiarize men of military age with the various opportunities being offered by the army. Those recruited under this statewide program will be dedicated to the vengeance of Pearl Harbor and will have that distinction bestowed upon them as they participate in activities to be held in Portland marking the first anniversary of the Japanese attack. The complete program slated for Monday, December 7, will be announced soon.

Emphasis is placed on the existing openings for army enlistment. The signal corps offers opportunity aplenty to men skilled as telephone or telegraph cable splicers, installer repairmen, radio repairmen, radio operators, and wire chiefs. Those who can as blaster and powder

This marked the end of a disastrious season for the Ashland club that saw them drop six games in a row after winning their first encounter.

Roland Parks, who coached the Grizzlies, will now take over the coaching duties of the Alley-Cats, reserve basketball squad made up sult of a visit to the campus of of sophomores and juniors not good enough to make the varsity.

200 U.O. Students Enlisted for Reserve Army

U. O., Eugene, Nov. 25-Military reserve programs of army, navy and marine corps signed more than 200 University of Oregon students, most of them freshmen and sophomores, as the rea joint procurement board. Final figures were received from the reserve branches by Dr. C. F. Kossack, head of the military information committee here.

Although only 200 completed enlistment, nearly 600 kept recruiting officers busy getting preliminary enlistment papers in shape. Many of these lacked one paper or some minor requirement and will be enlisted at a later date, Dr. Kossack said.

Highest number of enlistments was reported by the army enlisted reserve with the naval officer programs following closely. Marines and army air corps signed an unusually large number of students, Kossack reported. The board has been asked to return later to complete enlistments of those who were unable to finish

Hindsight, On Sports By I Told You So

The Ashland high grid squad rung down the curtain for the football season and will devote their time for the next few months to basketball. And maybe it is just as well, too, after one takes a glance of the Grizzlies' record.

They started off with a bang when they whipped Lakeview 20 to 0 but, on the next Friday, ran up against a powerful Klamath Falls outfit before they were ready for such competition and were clipped 26-0. Next came the Grants Pass tilt which" the Grizzlies dropped 33 to 0 and then Yreka added to the home club's humility by handing them a 20 to 7 thrashing. A Dunsmuir team which was supposed to be fodder for the Grizzlies stopped our boys 14 to 9. Then came the year's big game with Medford which Ashland dropped 27 to 7. Last Friday night they traveled to Roseburg and again lost 27 to

And that's enough said for Ashland's 1942 football machine.

Our prediction figures took an all-season top last week when we reached .613 with 49 games won and 31 lost. We picked eight out of ten correctly with the Klamath Falls-Vancouver and Minnesota-Wisconsin games being our downfall. 0. 17

Navy vs. Army: This traditional battle will provide the usual capacity crowd with an afternoon of exciting football with Navy coming out ahead.

Georgia vs. Georgia Tech: A humdinger with Georgia on the big end.

Michigan vs. Iowa: Michigan to close their season in a blaze of glory.

Michigan State vs. Oregon State: Our Beavers are in for a bad afternoon.

Notre Dame vs. Southern California: Too much Angelo Bertelli for the Pacific coast team.

Ohio State vs. Iowa Cadets: Those staters are really tough and this game is no exception.

Southern Methodists vs. Texas Christian: Watch those Mustangs roll

Washington vs. Washington Here's the Pacific coast's big upset. Washington to climax in a close free-for-all,

Unless Really Necessary

PLEASE DON'T TRAVEL

WAR SERVICE COMES FIRST!

Don't travel unless you must . . . War service must come first ... Ask yourself, before you travel: Is this trip necessary?

These, briefly, are admonitions and warnings of our Government, for all transportation is now vitally needed to carry our Armed Forces, workers in war plants and other essential travelers.

In the past, Americans took extra trips over the Holidays, causing an above-normal volume of travel.

But these are not normal times. Today transportation is faced with a serious shortage of equipment. Trained personnel has been depleted by the need for fighting men. Lower operating speed has become necessary in order to save rubber. Now gasoline rationing will make it necessary for many additional essential travelers to depend on already overloaded buses.

That is why we appeal to you to postpone any pleasure trip you have planned which requires the use of public transportation. But another important reason is that thousands of our boys in the Armed Forces want to be home for the Holidays. Every one of them who can get leave des ves this privilege ... we are not asking them not to travel. You, by giving up your trips, can add to their enjoyment and comfort. We are sure that every American will be eager and proud to make this sacrifice.

So please don't travel unless absolutely necessaryespecially over the Holidays and week-ends.
