USO IN NEED OF ROOMS FOR SOLDIERS

The local USO reports continued lack of rooms for soldiers visiting Ashland over the week end, and urges citizens who have a room available for rent at such time to list it with the USO at the club-house.

Some rooms, though not sufficient number, are regularly listed, at prices ranging from 50 cents to $1.25. All available rooms are usually filled on week ends.

TRAVELING EXAMINER TO BE HERE MONDAY

A Traveling Examiner of Operators and Chauffeurs is scheduled to arrive in Ashland, Monday, May 24, and will be on duty at the City Hall between the hours of 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., according to recent announcement from the Secretary of State's office. All those wishing permits or license to drive cars are asked to get in touch with the examiner during these hours.

SGT. PEARSON VISITS SOCE

Sgt. Jack Pearson of Camp Phillips, Kansas, visited the Southern Oregon College campus Monday while on furlough home, the first visit since last November. Sgt. Pearson is a graduate of SOCE and taught at Mallin, Oregon, before going into the service. In addition to his other military duties at Camp Phillips, he is also teaching the foreign-born in the camp to read and write.
