SOLDIERS TO SING AT METHODIST CHURCH

The Methodist Church will give to this community an opportunity to hear the Victory Quartet, and the male chorus, from the First Medical Regiment of Camp White on next Sunday evening at 8 o'clock. This quartet has sung in the Methodist Church on several occasions, and their chaplain, Roy H. Boldt always comes with them and has a real message. The Chorus will appear here for the first time. A half hour of religious songs and hymns will be given by these men. Following this there will be a sermon on "The Shepherd Psalm"

The Wesleyan Service Guild, assisted by the women of the church, will serve refreshments to the soldiers in the social hall of the church immediately following the close of the service. The public is invited to hear these men sing the gospel which is precious to them.
