Women's Association Holds Meeting

MISS HAYS DAY AT CHURCH
The Women's Association convened with Miss Estella Hays leading the Spiritual Life Group. The topic discussed was "Great Peace have they that serve the Lord with gladness." Mrs. J. W. McCoy presided during the business meeting that opened in song. Mrs. Minna Oldenburg led in prayer. Final plans for the Rummage Sale were made. Luncheon was served by the hostesses: Mrs. E. S. Corthell, Mrs. T. J. Norby, Mrs. J. H. Edgar, Mrs. Jere Torrey and Mrs. Charles May. The tables were decorated with runners of grape-vines studded with purple grapes.

The afternoon session opened in song. Mrs. W. D. Jackson, the program chairman, introduced Miss Estella Hays, who presented a clear and informative discussion of Alaska, the land of contrasts. Geographically, Alaska is the world's center, a strategic and most important place in the world of today. Miss Hays then told of the extensive missionary work being done in this region. Alaska has its pioneers too. Miss Hays told of the early mission workers, who went to this territory in the later part of the last century.

Mrs. H. A. Stearns had the closing devotional period. She read from II Cor. 4. She then gave food for thought in a discussion of Spiritual vitamins. Miss Hays gave the benedictory prayer.

Mrs. T. J. Norby and Miss Estella Hays volunteered to make cookies for the USO Oct. 9.

SGT. DICK PROCE WINS LETTER CONTEST

Sgt. Dick Proce, 81st General Hospital, Camp White, Oregon, was first prize winner of the Ashland USO contest observing National letter-writing week. The prize was a telephone call to his home in New York City. Second and third prizes, boxes of stationery were won by S/Sgt. John S. Mitchell, 185th General Hospital, Camp White, and senior hostess Mrs. Maxine Miller of Ashland. Third prize, $1 in air mail stamps, went to an army wife, Mrs. Mary Wiskow, Ashland.

Awarding of the prizes was an interesting episode at the formal dance Saturday evening, Oct. 9 at the Ashland USO, the College Daze introducing new junior hostesses. The USO rooms were strikingly decorated with colored paper streamers, flowers and drawings done by a committee deserving congratulations on the result. Refreshments were decorated cakes, punch and ice cream.

In charge of the dance were Mary Jean Hendricks, president junior hostess group, assisted by Pvt. Harry Stevens of Rochester, N. Y., attached to the 1136th Headquarters; junior hostesses, Judy Silver, Donna Frazier, Pat Rawe, Florence Wood, Elma Simmons, Lois Richmond, and Misses Marion Ady and Virginia Hales.

FEWER VISITORS AT CRATER LAKE PARK RECENTLY

Only 26,656 persons visited Crater Lake National park during the past season which officially ended September 30. This is a drop from 100,079 last year, and the record attendance of 273,564 in 1941.

Mrs. Pauline Fallis of North Hollywood, California arrived Sunday morning for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Al Snider.

Navy Food Builds 'Em Strong!

Good grub, and plenty of it, helps to give U. S. Navy men those fine physiques you see in the posters—or in the picture above! They eat twice as much bread as they did not so long ago as civilians. Pie and ice cream are still favorite desserts.

by Kathrine Wellingbrook

YOU CAN TELL by looking at them that the food is right! Talk to any Chief Commissary Steward of the U. S. Navy, and you'll soon find out why. He thinks of the meals he plans in terms of men, not rations... men who deserve the best food a country ever offered its fighters. He sees that they get it, too.

Quantity, quality, nutritional value and downright good flavor are "musts" for Navy meals. And appetites are hearty! Thirty-five gallons of ice-cream disappear as dessert without a flurry. Eight slices of bread is the daily average, and all white bread is enriched with Vitamin B, Niacin (another of the B-complex vitamins) and iron—just as it is today for us here at home.

Menus are Well-balanced

Following are typical Navy menus for one day. Notice how well they are planned to furnish proteins, energy-food and all the vitamins and minerals essential for vital good health. These menus set a good example for family fare, too!

- BREAKFAST
Cereal Fruit French Toast
Assorted Jams—Butter
Coffee Milk
- DINNER
Boiled Ham Spinach
Potatoes Sliced Pickles Vegetable Salad
Bread and Butter (Enriched white bread, rye, whole wheat)
Assorted Pies (Apple, Huckleberry, Coconut, Cherry, Pineapple, Peach, Custard, Cheese)
Lemonade
- SUPPER
Grilled Victory Steaks
Gravy Mashed Potatoes
Combination Salad
Bread and Butter (Enriched white bread, rye, whole wheat) Tea
iced Watermelon

Telegraph Companies Merge October 7

Consolidation of the Western Union and Postal Telegraph Companies which was effective October 7 will mean more efficient written communications service for Ashland people it was stated today by Mr. C. C. Logan, local Western Union manager. Mr. Logan said, "Merger of the two telegraph networks will be in the best interests of the industry."

The public will continue to see the Postal Telegraph sign for some time. The Postal telegraph forms and other stationery will be used up in order to conserve materials under the current paper shortage.

Telegrams filed at any telegraph office will be handled over the unified system. Local Postal Telegraph employees will be added to the Western Union service roll as of the effective date of the merger and will receive the same consideration and benefits as though they had been Western Union employees in the past. Postal Telegraph accounts receivable and payable will be taken over by Western Union, and payments for telegraph service heretofore billed by Postal should be made to Western Union Mr. Logan said.

WSG Holds Regular Meeting at Church

The October meeting of the Wesleyan Service Guild was held at the Methodist Church on Tuesday evening. Following the business session a devotional period was led by Cora Mason on the topic, "Can Christians Hold the World Together?"

The subject for the study was "The Christians' Task in Cuba and Puerto Rico." Mrs. Leona Ormand was in charge, assisted by Miss Ethel Reid and Mrs. Hazel Weren. A background of these vital islands was given by Miss Reid, using a map for clarity. Mrs. Weren told of the religious and educational work done by the Methodist Church there, part of which has been included in the giving program of the Guild. The only social center in Cuba is conducted by the Methodist Church, and the work also includes schools, rural centers, and work with youth, such as Boy Scout sponsorship.

Following this' informational program, Mrs. Willits and Mrs. Ormand entertained the group with music from Cuba and Puerto Rico. The vocal duets and piano solos portrayed vividly the love of rhythm and sentiment of these peoples.

Those present included Mesdames Leona Ormand, Hazel Weren, Alice Willits, Gladys Billings, D. M. Brower, George Bruce, H. J. Ylvisaker, and Misses Ethel Reid, Edith Itchner, Adeleen Itchner, Doris Day, Carrie May Smith, Jean Carson, Ollie Depew, Veda Brower, and Cora Mason.

OSC FRESHMAN CLASS HAS RECORD NUMBER OF CO-EDS

The freshman class with a larger number of co-eds than ever before though only about a fifth the usual number of men, completed Freshman week here and is now launched on the first term of the college year. The large number of freshman women now flocking to college resulted in the school of home economics having its largest first-year total.

While final registration is not yet complete, early indications are for a civilian total of around 1800 made up of about half freshmen. New arrivals of soldier students are bringing ASTP totals toward the 1500 mark.

ALUMNI GATHERINGS SET FOR OSC BIRTHDAY EVENT

Oregon State college alumni throughout the state, and elsewhere within broadcast reach of the campus, are planning to hold special city and community meetings on the night of the charter day celebration of the 75th anniversary of the institution Wednesday, October 27. The entire program, starting at 8 o'clock, will be broadcast over the state station KOAC and parts of it may also be handled by one or more of the networks.
