Hugh Herbert in "It's a Great Life" showing at the Lithia Theatre, Sun., Mon., Tues.

The slogan, "feed a fighter", served to spur Oregon 4-H club members to greater efforts this past year. From a goal of producing enough to equal the needs of a soldier for a half year, many went on to grow crops or livestock enough to feed seven or eight fighters for a full year.

MADE-AT-HOME GIFTS FOR BABY'S CHRISTMAS

THE good corner sections of a worn bath towel can be cut into little bibs and prettied up for a gift for the baby. Dainty crocheted edgings made of glossy cotton and embroidered floral sprays in pastel colors trim the bibs. Then, to keep Baby quiet and happy for hours at a time, make him this soft, crocheted doll in bright colored cotton to catch his eye. The stitchery is simple. Directions for making the two bibs and the doll may be obtained by sending a stamped, self-addressed envelope to the Needlework Department of this paper, specifying design 2634 and 2707.

Directors of League of Women Voters Meet

The Board of Directors of the National League of Women Voters will meet in Washington for a week, beginning November 15, to make plans to carry on the league's nation-wide effort to help stiffen the people to meet post-war crisis.

Because it believes that a crisis on our country's part in fashioning the world after war is fast approaching, the National League of Women Voters has added a sixth day to its customary five days of November meetings, according to Marguerite M. Wells, president of the league.

Troop Movement Tremendous Task

Taking all of Jackson County's 36,213 people around the world in sleeping cars nearly 18 times would be a tremendous undertaking, yet that is actually about the size of the troop movement job reported today by the Pullman Co.

Since Pear Harbor, Pullman has carried about 14,000,000 troops a distance of more than 15 billion passenger miles in its sleeping cars, the company reports. These figures are said to cover mass military movements alone, and do not include the heavy travel of furloughed men and others.
