FTA HOLDS NOON LUNCHEON RECENTLY

Members of FTA (Future Teachers of America) Chapter at the Southern Oregon College of Education met at noon luncheon last week at the Lincoln School Cafeteria, with Dr. Walter Redford as speaker.
Dr. Redford's address dealt with the history and aims of the organization, which is a junior branch of the National Educational Association. The FTA Chapter at SOCE being one of the first to organize after the national junior branch was established, it has received recognition from the national office for its early and continued activity, according to Dr. Redford.
Bernice McMartin of Red Bluff, Calif., president of the chapter, presided at a business meeting at which officers for the year were nominated. About 15 members were present, including as guests Misses Florence Allen, Lurline Brady and Ida O'Brien, members of the Lincoln Training School faculty.

Enjoy Potluck Supper at Church of Christ Monday

Monday night 30 men and boys gathered in the dining room of the Church of Christ for a Potluck supper. After a bountiful meal the men sang "Old Black Joe" and "What a Friend We Have in Jesus." Dale Dieckman, accompanied by his sister, Maxine, played two numbers on the violin. Lowell Hall also played two numbers on the accordion. Both boys were enthusiastically received. Mr. Baxter had charge of two very interesting games. Elto Petri read a "Tall Hunting Story" and Mr. Downing read a letter from Chaplain Howard Stansbery, a brother-in-law of Mrs. Downing, who is now somewhere in Italy.

GUIDE TO RABBIT RAISING ISSUED AS OSC BULLETIN

A comprehensive illustrated guide to home production of rabbits is now available to Oregon growers. While there are a number of Oregon State College experiment circulars No. 155, "Rabbit Production for Meat."
The bulletin, which may be obtained free from any extension office, includes sections on management practices, slaughtering and skinning, handling pelts, controlling diseases, and even a few rabbit recipes.

Ration-Time RECIPES

"Hamburgers with" is an all-American favorite.

The following recipe is nutritionally enriched with vitaminized margarine:
STUFFED HAMBURGERS ON ONION SLICES
1 pound hamburger
1 tablespoon melted margarine
1 tablespoon ketchup
4 slices bread
1 egg beaten
1 tablespoon milk

Divide hamburger into six equal servings. Roll or pat out as thin as possible. Sprinkle with salt and pepper. Make dressing by combining bread, egg, milk, ketchup with 1 tablespoon melted margarine. Place a spoonful of meat up over the dressing, pat into shape, being sure all dressing is covered. Fry in hot margarine in skillet. When brown on both sides, add 1/2 cup water, cover and cook over low heat 8 to 10 minutes. Serve on raw onion slices.
Other favorite low-point recipes are found in a 32-page cookbook "Ration-Time Recipes." Free copy may be obtained from National Cotton Council, Box 18, Memphis (1) Tennessee.

American Legion Stresses Car-Sharing

The American Legion in Oregon, in co-operation with the Office of Price Administration, has launched a mileage conservation program as one of its major undertakings of the year, according to announcement by W. W. Fordyce of Portland, state chairman.
Organized in the form of a "4 in 1 War Club," the Legion's program emphasizes the importance of car sharing among motorists in order to conserve gasoline, rubber and motor vehicles "until victory is won."
To assist the public in forming ride-sharing arrangements, it is contemplated that transportation desks shall be conducted by local war price and rationing boards, under the jurisdiction of the American Legion and American Legion Auxiliary, thus providing a clearing house where motorists can share their vehicles with others. Through these facilities persons desiring rides, and motorists desiring passengers, can file their requests and be matched up.

Murder IN THE KITCHEN

CRIME DOESN'T PAY. Not even in the kitchen. Are you guilty of things like this?

She Hid the Evidence in the Garbage Can

If you're the kind of housewife who throws away outside lettuce leaves, you only have one alibi: they're nice to hold old coffee grounds.
"Lettuce leaves, cabbage leaves and the outer greens from most vegetables are full of good nutritional elements," say home economists at Revere's Experimental Kitchen. "Use them for soups, sauces and gravies."
Don't hide the evidence in the garbage can. You'll have a guilty, uneasy look when the garbage collector comes around.

STEPS IN PANBROILING

- a dry heat method for tender cuts
For Steaks, Chops & Patties

 2. Brown meat on both sides
 3. Season with salt and pepper
 4. Do not cover. Do not add fat or water
 5. Reduce temperature and turn occasionally
 6. Pour off fat as it accumulates in pan

What About Our Scrap?

We need scrap, the brass hats said, And we worked like the devil until we were dead. And now it lies wallowing in the mud, The rusty scrap that sapped our blood!
We should remove the scrap and ease Our job of licking the Japanese. So we should move the scrap away, To speed our Victory on the way.
Myself, and other students, plead, LET'S GET THAT SCRAP AWAY WITH SPEED!

PVT. KEMPKER VISITS FRIENDS IN ASHLAND

Pvt. John Kempke from Camp Campbell, Ky., was visiting in Ashland Sunday. Pvt. Kempke formerly lived for a time in Ashland and attended the Southern Oregon College of Education, graduating in 1940. At Camp Campbell he is engaged in secretarial work connected with the administration of construction and operation of air bases. His address is Hdg. & Hdg., 31st Service Group, Camp Campbell, Ky.
He stated that his brother, Bob (also a graduate of SOCE), is a basic instructor in the air training base at Greenwood, Miss. He received a lieutenant's commission at Randolph Field, Tex., in August.

PATRIOTIC TO HOARD

With the all-time record crop of Irish potatoes now available, the government suggests buying them by the bushel and storing them against any possible future scarcity. While there are a number of methods for home-storing potatoes, all very simple, Westinghouse home economists say these are the cardinal principles to remember: 1. Potatoes must be mature and free from bruises or rot. Don't wash. Brush off excess soil, using care to avoid scratching and marring. Store in barrels, bins, boxes, baskets, crates or on the floor. 2. Keep in cool place but don't allow them to freeze. 3. Storage space should be moist and ventilated. 4. Protect from light—if necessary, cover with paper or bags.

TELL A MARINE BY WAY OF RADIO

Tell it to the Marines!
Better yet, tell it to your Marine overseas by radio.
Six days a week a 10-minute program is broadcast from San Francisco to Marines in the Pacific. It consists of messages from relatives and friends of Marines, each message being limited to 100 words.
Typical items include births in the family, engagements and marriages of relatives and friends, news of how the local football team is faring, comments on the Marine's latest letters, and cheery wishes from home. The 100-word limit applies only to the text of the message.
Messages may be sent for transmittal to the Public Relations Officer, U. S. Marine Corps, 1 Montgomery Street, San Francisco. Full name, rank and the address of the Marine, together with the name and address of the sender, must be printed on the message.

Youth Fellowship Has Thanksgiving Party

The Methodist Youth Fellowship group met in the parlors of the church Monday evening for a Thanksgiving season party. Mr. and Mrs. John Billings, the sponsors, had planned the most interesting program of quiet and lively games so that there was not a dull moment from the time they entered the room until the time for the party to break up.
There was at the center of the room a huge bouquet of chrysanthemums.
Miss Laura Billings and Mrs. Betty Sue Reed, the refreshment committee, served chocolate and doughnuts. The young folk went to their homes saying, "Let's have another party like this soon."

Since patriotism forbids using quantities of fat simply to indulge in a fondness for fried potatoes, Westinghouse home economists go in for this ensemble called "country omelet." Put two diced potatoes (which were cooked with jackets on) and three slices cubed bread in a skillet containing one tablespoon drippings. When brown, add two well-beaten eggs plus one tablespoon milk for each egg, and stir mixture just as for scrambled eggs. Serves five and "ups" the first-class protein quality of the diet.

Next Year Will Be Different

NEXT year will be different. Not only the weather, and markets, and the needs of the country. Our jobs will be different, too. Because next year we're going to do those jobs differently—and we hope better!
We, whose job is producing goods and services, have been making resolutions like this for years. And we've been keeping them! For in our kind of business, you either keep on finding better ways of doing things, or—you go backward! And if enough people do that, the thing we call progress bogs down.
That's why farmers keep on trying new seed, and fertilizers, and machines, and strains of stock. That's the reason industry carries on research—another name for a constant search for new knowledge and better ways to do things. Because most of us have been doing this for years, America has had the highest standard of living in the world. And it's the reason, too, that American production is doing so much today to bring victory.
After the war, America is going to need more than ever men with the courage and enterprise to invest time, money, and hard work in the search for better things. And if America's producers understand each other, and each other's problems, we'll be able to do these all-important jobs better. General Electric Co., Schenectady, N. Y.

Something to think about before you plan a train trip

The railroad is a war industry. All train space is needed now to carry people doing war jobs and men in the armed forces. Such travelers should not be delayed. Every time you don't make an unnecessary train trip you aid the war drive by just that much.
