Southern Ore. Conference Members Fight for State Tournament Rights

Probably the greatest sports event in this region will be the annual play-off contests to be held March 3-4. This year's tourney will have a double objective. Instead of merely deciding who will represent Southern Oregon in the State Tournament which takes place at Salem on March 17-18-19, it will also clear up the tie theoretically, at least, which is withholding presentation of the conference cup. Though even a lower division squad may go to the Salem frolic, opinion is that the locals or the Klamath boys will come out on top.

The Grizzlies at one time were half a game in the lead by virtue of a double victory over the Whitebirds and a Medford win over the same team. However, two top-sided contests with Roseburg gave the league lead back to the Klamath Fall team. Ashland's 39-28 win over the Black Tornado Friday night again tied the standings with a 12 win-4 loss record for both K. F. and the local squad.

Coach Simpson and the boys are keeping their fingers crossed because a chance at the State Championship is a fairly good guarantee that whoever represents this district will be among the best teams at the Up-state tournament.

In a play-off game this week, it will be decided whether Grants Pass or Roseburg is to represent the lower-division at this tournament. The tournament itself will be played at the SOCE gymnasium on Friday and Saturday. The winner of the Roseburg-Grants Pass play-off will vie with Ashland in the 8:00 game while the second tussle will see Medford pitted against the Klamath Pelicans. In the final game, on March 4, the winners of these two games meet to decide our representative at the State Tournament.

Lithians Bob Tails Of Medford Bengals

The Ashland High basketball team finished their Medford series with 3 wins, 1 loss, by sweeping their last two scheduled games from the Tigers, 43-20, and 39-28. The first game, played on the home court, was a one-sided affair all the way, with a "race-horse" Grizzlies quintet running the Medfordites to death. The issue was never in doubt from the opening whistle. The half-time score was 19-17, but in the second half, Ashland opened up while Medford couldn't do a thing, and the game ended 43-20. Bartlett was high for Ashland with 11, and Riggs had 5 for Medford.

In the second game Medford was gunning for a win, but Ashland was fighting for a conference tie with K. Falls and could not be denied. They smothered the Black Tornado for two quarters and the half ended 27-11. In the third stanza, the desperate Tigers closed the gap to 4 points but were never able to overcome the lead. In the 4th period, Ashland pulled ahead again and the game ended 39-28. Roberson and Bartlett were high scorers with eleven apiece, while Watson and Neidermeyer had 9 each for Medford. Roseburg Falls Victim to AHS

After dropping a two-game series to the locals, the Roseburg Indians weren't left much choice out to return to their wig-wams and consult the medicine-man.

Friday night's melee proved a repetition, more or less, of the action in past games here, with the scoring for the Grizzlies being a bit weak in the earlier minutes of the game and a sensational rally in the last half. With the half ending at 9-4, the Red and White piled up 33 points in comparison to the Indian's 14. When the game ended, Ashland was still far in the lead with a 43-30 win.

Saturday almost proved to be the downfall of our Ursidae horribilis as the Roseburg boys put up a stiff battle throughout the game, all of which resulted in a score of 41-39, just barely pulling the Grizzlies another fracas. (From the Rogue News)
