1200 Oregon Women Members of WAVES

More than 1200 young women from Oregon are among the 75,000 WAVES on duty at 500 shore establishments of the U. S. Navy in continental United States, according to Herb. Crain of the Medford Navy recruiting station, which handles WAVE applications in this area.

Outstanding young women from this area are included in the contribution of patriotic Oregon women to the WAVES program.

Through the assignment of these 75,000 WAVES to shore establishments, 32,700 enlisted men and 4675 officers have been directly released from these necessary jobs at home to fill vital and important jobs at sea or overseas. In addition, some 30,000 other men are serving afloat because the women of the Navy were trained and ready to fill necessarily expanding complements at home.
