

LOCAL HAPPENINGS

Roger Clark and Jack Baker spent from Friday until Sunday morning at the Weyerhaeuser timber farm at Camp Four with Herb Huston, proprietor of the commissary at Camp Four.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Chipman and son will leave today, Thursday for San Francisco for a combined pleasure and business trip to be gone for a couple of weeks. Harry owns a fine news stand and spends the days as city editor for the Daily Tydings.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Johnston announce the birth of a daughter named Mary Ellen, September 1, weight six and three-fourths pounds. The Johnstons are former residents, now living at Joseph Oregon, where Mr. Johnston is pastor of the Christian Church.

Allyn King was arrested last week on a bench warrant issued from Judge Hanna's court in Medford, charging the youth with breaking his probation agreement. The case was brought up by King's being mixed up in the "disappearance" of an Ashland woman some weeks ago. Last week King was sentenced to two years in the state penitentiary, as a result of the forgery charges brought against him and for which he was given a suspended sentence pending good behavior.

Check your heating equipment now for coming winter. We have plenty of stove pipe, dampers and stove boards in stock at Marshall-Wells store on the plaza.

The Arch Kincaid farm, six miles east of Ashland in the Emigrant creek district was sold this week to Mr. and Mrs. Wyant of Modesto, California. They were here until Tuesday morning closing the deal, but left for their home to make final arrangements to move to their new location. The farm is of considerable size, being operated as a stock farm.

Check your heating equipment now for coming winter. We have plenty of stove pipe, dampers and stove boards in stock at Marshall-Wells store on the plaza.

Mrs. Ruth Shell who lives at 195 Harrison street, has been quite ill the past several days, but Tuesday afternoon was some what improved.

Kenneth Burns, who was inducted into the army at Monterey, California on Sept. 6, is still being held there, as he has received no assignment for training. Most of the other group who went in with him the same day were assigned for infantry training at Camp Roberts, California.

Mr and Mrs. Joe King received word the first of the week from their son Capt. Joe King that he was in an evacuation hospital, somewhere in France as the result of severe injuries suffered in a plane crash a few days before. He is test pilot for the army air forces at advanced bases. He stated that he was in casts for injuries to his back, neck and legs. He has been overseas for the past two years, his parents advised and has been in the fighting all the way through Africa, Italy and now in France. Mr. and Mrs. King were also notified Monday that their nephew, George High, of Ashland was reported missing in action in New Guinea, he has been overseas for the past six months. His wife has been in Ashland the past several days to see about property they own here, coming down from Portland.

Check your heating equipment now for coming winter. We have plenty of stove pipe, dampers and stove boards in stock at Marshall-Wells store on the plaza.

Mrs. Floyd Samford and family and Mrs. Wm. H. Ford and two children were in Medford Tuesday afternoon, that the children might go to the carnival in progress there. This was the first time the children had ever attended a carnival and the thrills and sights were greatly enjoyed.

Beecher Danford, with the city electrical department, suffered a painful but not particularly serious accident this week when he fell from a ladder while on a city work project. He broke his heel in the fall. He will be confined to his home for a while.

Miss Betty Jo Burns, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. T. Burns spent Tuesday night at the home of Mrs. Paul Merfeld at Medford. Miss Burns is stenographer and clerk in the office of Robert Holmes, Southern Pacific agent at Medford, going back and forth daily to her work.

Pvt. Alf Ashland of Medford Army Air Field visited Ashland U.S.O. Sunday afternoon. Pvt. Ashland was born in Gottenburg, Sweden and has been in the United States for 6 years. He has been in the Armed Forces for 17 months. He is now a naturalized citizen. Pvt. Ashland was a mass-ur in civilian life and came to the United States to work at his profession.

Check your heating equipment now for coming winter. We have plenty of stove pipe, dampers and stove boards in stock at Marshall-Wells store on the plaza.

Members of the Elks club who can spare the time are busy making up 500 small wooden boxes, which they will donate to anyone who wants them. The boxes are the maximum size for overseas mailing set by the post office department. They are made of wood, size 12x6x6 and will be distributed from the Taxie Bus depot. The boxes are made of wood so that contents will arrive in the best possible condition.

Mrs. G. W. Bruce and her daughter, Mrs. Ruth Robinson of Dallas, Oregon, returned on Thursday from a visit with relatives in Alameda and San Jose California. Over the week end Mrs. Reba Kelsey and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Kellogg served each a dinner honoring Mrs. Robinson. Mrs. Robinson's husband is in the army, serving at present in Corsica. Mrs. Robinson, after three weeks with her folks in Ashland, left for her home last Sunday morning.

Boulevard Meat Department Leased by Central Point Man

The meat department of the well known Boulevard Market has been leased to Harold Arney the past week, it was announced. Mr. and Mrs. Arney come from Central Point and are also well known in Medford where he had charge of the Oakdale grocery market and for a time managed the meat market at Faber's market at Central Point.

Two new meat refrigeration show cases have recently been installed at the Boulevard market to make it one of the most modern in town.

Mr. and Mrs. Arney and daughter, Haroldine, have moved into an apartment at 64 Gresham street.

Dr. Redford Returns From Virginia Meet

Dr. Walter Medford, president of the College of Education here at Ashland returned last week from a meeting held at Jackson's Mill, West Virginia. He was one of 200 present, 150 of them being presidents of educational colleges. Others were guest speakers and councilors. The meeting was for presidents of teachers colleges that are members of the American Association of Teachers Colleges, and was in session for nine days, from August 15 to 24.

Former Ashland Educator Passes

Word came to Dr. Walter Redford of the death in Portland last week end of A. C. Strange, following an illness of several years. Mr. Strange was a member of the faculty of the Southern Oregon College of Education since it was established in 1926, until his retirement last year. His work was in the education department and with his broad experience and preparation he was able to offer his classes an interesting course. He was affiliated with the Ashland Presbyterian church and was an active worker. His survivors include his wife and daughter, Mrs. Frances Southwick.

Governor Snell Opens Some Oregon Forts

Governor Snell issued a proclamation late Monday opening all the forests west of the Cascade mountains with the exception of Josephine and Jackson counties, and the Rogue and Siskiyou forests. Decision to open the forests was made on the recommendation of State Forester N. S. Rogers, after he had determined that the rain had ended the dry spell which forced the closing order three weeks ago.

Hunter Bags Two Bear at Mt. Ashland

L. L. Lewis, a government hunter from Central Point, was in Ashland Friday, and displayed two bears which he had killed in the vicinity of Mt. Ashland where he had been hunting bear the past several days. He had in the car with him seventeen dogs which he uses in hunting bears, and wildcats whenever they are reported molesting sheep or cattle.

He stated that he had been in the Mt. Ashland area hunting the bear after it was reported that they had been killing sheep from the Austie Barron flock. It had also been reported that the bear had been molesting sheep and cattle in the Wagner Butte area.

Marriage Unites Betty Hileman Alden Powell

Vows were spoken Friday September 8, at 8 o'clock at the Baptist Parsonage, uniting in marriage Miss M. Betty Hileman and Alden Deston Powell both of Ashland.

Rev. Gordon C. Griffin read the beautiful service of the church. The only attendant was Miss Patricia Powell, daughter of Mr. Powell.

Mr. and Mrs. Powell will make their home on Oak street.

Mrs. Powell is a popular member of the teaching staff of Lincoln training school and has been for a number of years. She will continue her work in the school.

Mr. Powell is a Southern Pacific employe and a veteran of World War I. The Powell family are long time residents of Ashland and well known in the community.

Justice Nelle Burns Weds Local Couple

Miss Katherine Marcene Wilson and Glenn Lawrence West were united in marriage at the home of Judge Nelle Burns at 8 o'clock Thursday evening September 14. Both are from Jackson county, Oregon, but Mrs. West was formerly from Texas.

Mr. and Mrs. West were attended by Mrs. Thora L. Hall, E. H. Poole, Mrs. Bill Barker and another friend. Their future plans were not announced.

USO Donations

Cookies: Mrs. H. C. Jobbins, Baptist Church; Mrs. Ruth Cushing, Mrs. C. M. Frazier, Mrs. Mildred Harmsen, Mrs. W. R. Whittle, Mrs. M. P. O'Harra, American Legion Auxilliary; Mrs. P. E. Ayers, Mrs. Everett McGee, Christian Church; Mrs. W. E. Cook and Mrs. Henry Carter, Methodist Church. Books: Dette Pendleton, Flowers, Miss Berna Haight and Miss Estella Hays.

Terry and the Pirates
By Milton Caniff

YOU WRITE THE ANSWERS ON A FIFTH WAR LOAN BOND APPLICATION!

Copyright 1944 by News Syndicate Co. Inc.

The Miner for Quality Printing.

BOMBS.....

Are timed, but fires and auto accidents are not. We write Fire and Auto Insurance that protects your home and car all the time.

J. F. EMMETT
167 East Main Street
Phone 8561

NOTICE!

This week we are ending three years of work with the Bus Depot Taxi. We take this means of expressing our thanks to our patrons and friends in Ashland and vicinity for their patronage. We feel assured that we have placed the taxi business in competent hands, under the new ownership.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Oden

TO THE PEOPLE OF ASHLAND... Our aim is to give you the same safe and courteous service that has preceded us. Sincerely

Bus Depot Taxi
M. F. GOIN, L. H. DAILEY
New Owners

DRIVE IN AND SEE US AT THE SIGN OF

"The Flying Red Horse"

WE FEATURE—

- Complete Lubrication Service
- Bows Electro-Seal Tire Repairs
- Battery Analyzing and Recharging
- Motor Tuning and Brake Relining and Repairing

SCRIPTER & McKEEVER
MAIN & GRESHAM STREETS
Ashland hone 6256

VARSITY
Fri. - Sat.
"ACTION in ARABIA" with George Saunders
Carole Bruce
also
SELECTED SHORT SUBJECTS

Sun. - Mon. - Tues.
Samuel Goldwyn's
TECHNICOLOR
Musical Comedy
"UP IN ARMS"
Starring
Danny Kaye
Dina Shore

O.K.! LET'S BREAK IT UP!
When you are through with that match or cigarette, break it up!... That is another thoughtful way to prevent forest fires.
KEEP OREGON GREEN ASSOCIATION SALEM, ORE.
DO YOUR PART KEEP OREGON GREEN PREVENT FOREST FIRES

SATURDAY SPECIAL
Coat Hangers
WOOD AND WIRE
5c each
METZ
5c - 10c - 25c and $1 Store

AS ALWAYS THE VERY BEST IN WORKMANSHIP AND THE MOST COURTEOUS TREATMENT
We appreciate your patronage
WARDROBE CLEANERS
On the Plaza Phone 3281

LITHIA
Frid. - Sat.
A THRILL A MINUTE!
"MAN FROM RIO GRANDE"
DON "RED" BARRY
WALLY VERNON
PLUS

EDW. G. ROBINSON
MARLENE DIETRICH
GEO RAFT
MANPOWER
with Alan HALE
Frank McHUGH

Sun.-Mon.-Tues.
SHE MAKES EVEN AIR-RAID SHELTERS "HOMEY"
GREER GARSON
WALTER PIDGEON
Mrs. Miniver
with Teresa Wright-Dame May Whitty
A METRO-COLUMBIA PICTURE