

LOCAL HAPPENINGS

Rev. and Mrs. Howard Rees were guests of honor at a party Saturday evening at the home of Mrs. C. H. Vaupeil at 422 Siskiyou Boulevard, the party being in the form of a farewell to the minister and his family. The Rev. George Shuman, president of the Ashland Ministerial association, and the Rev. C. F. McCall, former pastor of the Congregational Church gave the talks of the evening, and expressed regrets of those present at their leaving Ashland. Rev. Rees has been pastor of the Congregational church for the past eight months and resigned to accept a commission in the army as a chaplain. He will report Nov. 8 at Fort Devon, Mass., for indoctrination course. The family left Monday afternoon to drive back, Mrs. Rees and the children intending to make their home at Marietta, Ohio for the duration. A fine traveling case was present to Rev. Rees and several gifts were given Mrs. Rees by their friends.

Miss Lois Schilling was hostess at the Schilling home at a party Saturday evening. Guests included school mates of the ninth grade. The Hallowe'en season was the inspiration for the party.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Giffen, former owners of the Miner write that they have purchased a weekly paper at Cairo, Nebraska, and have taken possession this week. It is near Mrs. Giffen's parents home at Cozad, Nebraska, where the Giffens have been living since leaving Ashland a couple of months ago.

Miss Joan Van DeWalker was hostess at a Hallowe'en party at the Van DeWalker home Monday evening. The usual games were played, followed by refreshments. Guests were mostly from Joan's schoolmates of the Ninth grade.

Supt. Davies of the Congregational church, District of Oregon met with the church members Wednesday for a Fellowship dinner at noon followed by a business session. He came from Portland to discuss selection of a new minister, to take the place of the Rev. Rees, who left Monday.

Attracting a good deal of attention was the window display in the Hardy Hardware store of captured German equipment, sent to Mr. and Mrs. Larkin Grubb by their son John. The articles which included helmets, an overcoat, a blouse, and other German field equipment, was sent from Italy and arrived in two packages last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Lindner had a letter from their son, Lt. Lindner, with the army air forces that he was at Foster Field, Texas, for a month's course of instruction in aerial gunnery on the new Thunderbolt fighter plane. He has been stationed at Bueing Field, Neb. and will return there as soon as his course is completed in Texas. He is a flight instructor.

will be at the Legion Hall Nov. 6th at 8 P. M.

President Betty Adams will preside at the business session. The Past President Mildred Frazier as the presiding officer will initiate all new members. They are requested to be present promptly at 8 P. M.

A program and social hour will follow with refreshments by Mrs. Eldon Corthell and her committee. All members are urged to attend.

Junior Hi Notes

By VIRGINIA LUTZ

Our first home football game with Grants Pass was won with a score of 47-6 in our favor, Friday afternoon at 3:00 P. M. on the Walter Phillip's Field.

The team played in their new jerseys which arrived Wednesday. Our band made its first public appearance at the game.

An old time Square Dance and Virginia Reel was danced in assembly Friday by Mrs. Lortens home room.

The Chorus made their first appearance for the assembly Friday morning. Led by Miss Lunde they sang "The Bells of Saint Mary's" "Strumming" and "The Bees are Humming." Mickey McKeever, Jeannine Presley and Virginia Lilley accompanied them on the piano.

The Library club has been busy for the last week, lacquering new books which came recently. Four new members have joined the club.
