

During this last week end there were four items of interest at the Ashland Methodist Church. On Saturday evening the Methodist Young Adult Sunday School class held a party in the Fellowship room. This party opened with a covered dish dinner, at which time a large number of young married couples of the church sat at the beautifully decorated tables. Following the dinner games and a big sing were enjoyed in front of the homey fireplace.

On Sunday afternoon a group of twenty-six members of the Senior and Intermediate Methodist Youth Fellowship went to Grants Pass where they attended a Youth Rally held in the Grants Pass Methodist Church. Representatives from five southern Oregon Methodist Churches were in attendance, and the Ashland group carried away the honors so far as attendance is concerned. The Ashland young people conducted the evening devotional meeting. John Billings led a discussion group during the afternoon in considering the question, 'How to make our devotional meetings more interesting and helpful.'

Monday evening the Intermediate Methodist Youth Fellowship met in the church for a Hallowe'en party. These young folks had done a beautiful job of decorating the rooms, and had provided "eats" consisting of apple cider and doughnuts. Hallowe'en games were enjoyed under the leadership of Mrs. G. W. Bruce and Mrs. Alma Simmons Baker.

Also on Monday evening the Senior and College age Methodist Youth Fellowship had a real spooky Hallowe'en party in the old barn out at the home of John Billings at the end of North Main Street. As soon as they had completed the walk along the 'spooky trail' which led all through the dark, creaky, corners of the old barn, and up through the hayloft where lurked the ghosts and hobgoblins, the young folks went to the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Billings where they enjoyed Hallowe'en games, and hypnotic stunts.

This church has been very active in the last summer months making improvements, and adding facilities which will make the church more attractive and convenient for the service of youth and adults. The new fireplace and new furniture make the Fellowship room one of the most attractive and serviceable places for all social functions of the church. Several wedding receptions have been held in these rooms since their completion.

There were few cases of real damage reported to the local police Tuesday night, however there was considerable damage done to tombstones in the Ashland Cemetery, several stones being toppled from their bases. Police have some leads in this case and are working on it.

There were eight arrests, six as a result of an overgrown hallowe'en prank; throwing eggs at motorists and pedestrians. These pranksters were apprehended and appeared in City Court Wednesday morning charged with disorderly conduct. They are: Leonard Williams 17 years Ashland, Ore., Charles Earl Jones 17 years, Glenn Bostwick 17, Carl Phillip Reich 17, Aubrey C. Davis 17, and Glenn L. Tingley 15 years all of Medford, Oregon. All entered a plea of guilty in City Court to a charge of disorderly conduct, and all were fined $3.00 and $2.50 costs.

Warren James Brasie, a transient from Michigan was arrested for drunk and disorderly conduct and plead guilty in City Court Wednesday morning. He was fined $10.00 and costs and given 10 days in jail. Upon payment of costs, the fine and jail sentence was suspended on condition the defendant leave town.

Buster Stratton, Prospect, Oregon was arrested for being drunk on a public street when he was found drunk in his car on Mt. Ave. In view of the fact that he had been a frequent "guest" at the local, "bastille" he was fined $25.00 and $2.50 costs when he plead guilty in City Court Wednesday morning. A 15 day jail sentence was suspended on good behavior provided the fine and costs are paid.
