

LOCAL HAPPENINGS

"Andy" Anderson, advertising manager for the Daily Tidings, is laid up this week, and only able to get about the office with a crutch, all because he slipped while stepping out of his car, at his home. In falling he twisted the ligaments in his leg. Being an enthusiastic Tuba tooter, and having the instrument in his hand at the time of the fall, brought him down quite hard. He expects to be laid up for several days.

Mrs. Maxine Caldwell of Merrill, Oregon, is visiting this week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hal Emery on Laurel Street. Accompanying Mrs. Caldwell is her son David.

BASKETS—We have a new stock of Clothes Baskets, Lunch Baskets and Work Baskets. Marshal-Wells Store on the Plaza, Phone 2-1231.

John Winthrop Witcher, of Lebanon, Oregon was arrested by city police the past week end, on a charge of disorderly conduct, was handed a fine of $150 and costs of $2.50 and sentenced to 20 days in jail in city court after pleading guilty to the charge. On a promise of good behavior and payment of $50 and costs, the 20 day jail sentence and $100 of the fine was suspended. The man was arrested after it was learned he had come to Ashland to stir up trouble between two recently wed Ashland residents, claiming that the bride had his automobile, owed him money etc., and that he intended to recover the same without due process of law. He was also charged with making false representations to the police and going under an assumed name.
