Marbeth McKeever Has Birthday Party

Thursday evening a party was held to observe the birthday of Miss Marbeth McKeever, with the party getting under way about seven o'clock in the Lithia park with a weiner roast. Class mates and friends of Miss McKeever to the number of about forty enjoyed the outdoor refreshments around the camp fire. Following this part of the evening's entertainment, the group was divided into several smaller units and lists handed out for a scavenger hunt through the town. As soon as each group completed their scavenger hunt they reported to the McKeever home on Morton street, where the balance of the evening was spent in visiting and further refreshments. Miss Marbeth received many lovely gifts on her birthday anniversary.

Lt. Comdr. Brantley Serves on USS Essex

Aboard the USS Essex in the Pacific—Lt. Comdr. William L. Brantley, USN, husband of Beatrice Tono De La E. Brantley, 6 Bellview rd., Ashland, Oregon serves aboard this carrier which steamed close to the shores of Tokyo with Task Force 38 to launch her planes against the remaining strength of the enemy in the final days of the war. All hands answered reveille several hours before sunrise that morning. They had had their breakfast and were waiting at their stations for the first light of dawn when the deafening roar of the flight of fighters took off one by one, followed by the bombers and torpedo planes.

Hundreds of Jap planes were destroyed on the ground, but few were sent up to challenge the attacks. The few that dared to fly out to the Task Force never returned.
